Serve the Lord with Gladness

From the Pastor

The Civil Society of the Faithful

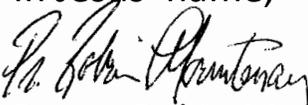

A colleague recently complained that some members of his congregation were offended when he openly criticized the Republican Party in a sermon last month. He felt justified in “speaking prophetically” against policy positions that he deemed “unchristian.” My friend is not unique; many pastors regularly weigh in on all things political from the pulpit. I have colleagues, parishioners, friends, and family who are on both sides of the current political divide. There are Democrats and Republicans, Socialists and Libertarians among my acquaintances. I know of St. Timothy members who support the Trump candidacy and others who “feel the Bern.” There are devotees of Clinton, Cruz, and Kasich too. All of these (or nearly all) are people of good will and can argue passionately for the righteousness of their cause and the superiority of their candidate. While none of us will find all such arguments persuasive, it’s hard to deny the sincerity of most political proponents. They believe in their cause and will not be swayed by the arguments of the opposition.

One of the true miracles of the Church is the diversity of its members. Just because we wouldn’t attend the same political rally as “those people” doesn’t mean that we can’t or won’t share a pew. One of the closest friendships among the members of St. Timothy was between two men who fought on opposite sides in World War Two, Francis Marc and Hans Wilbert (both now deceased). Francis was on the flight crew of a B-17 in the American 8th Air Force and Hans was a soldier in the German Wehrmacht. Francis’ squadron even bombed Hans’s home town of Bad Kreuznach. Despite their history, these two former adversaries became friends, thanks to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. If friendship is possible between two formerly fierce enemies, how much more can members of opposing political parties enjoy one another’s company?

In Galatians 3:28 St. Paul says, “There is no longer Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, there is no longer male or female; for all are one in Christ Jesus.” The same can be said about Republican and Democrat, even Norwegian and Swede. The reason that I tend not to “preach politics” is because I know, love, and serve people on both sides of the aisle and refuse to call into question the genuineness of their respective religiosities.

Please note that I’m not a cultural relativist; I do believe that there is right and there is wrong. Some issues demand Christian critique. German antisemitism in the 1930s and American slavery in 19th century are two issues that warranted the church’s prophetic voice, though the church was sometimes silent and at other times in league with the oppressors. It’s always easier to see the error of our predecessors’ ways through the lens of history, though it’s hard to get our 21st century heads around Christian support for either of those evils. Our descendants will undoubtedly question our judgements as well and regard us as the moral equivalent of trilobites, whether our positions are left, right, or center.

There are times when the church needs to take political stands, but, except in extreme circumstances, when we do so we should do it civilly and lovingly. Except for the most ardent partisans, most people will not agree fully with every position on their party’s platform. There should be diversity within the political movements of a free people; otherwise the movement becomes totalitarian and threatens to destroy liberty. Perhaps I’m too reticent when it comes to “speaking truth to power,” and, if so, I hereby confess my sin. Yet, the people of God constitute a marvelous collection of Democrats, Republicans, and others of nearly every political stripe. Such a diverse gathering is possible only with the love of God in Christ Jesus. God grant that, even in this election year, we may continue to love one another and rejoice in our rich diversity!

Pastor Robin Mountenay

Mother's Day is May 8th, and it is also Blanket Sunday!

Since 1947 Church World Services has been providing blankets as a first tool to recovery for persons affected by floods and storms, homelessness and other tragedies. Recipients have known that the CWS blanket is more than just a warm covering and has served many purposes. Versatile and inexpensive, the $5.00 blanket has always been a flexible tool to be used as needed.

Collections for blanket donations ($5.00 per blanket) will be on April 24 and May 1. This allows time for the list of donors to be printed in the Mother's Day bulletin. Remember and honor loved ones this Mother's Day.

Checks can either be made payable to ST. TIMOTHY WELCA or to church World Services. Envelopes as well as cards honoring loved ones will be available in the narthex. We thank you in advance for your generosity!

Hey St Timothy High school and college youth! Looking for a summer job?

Several of our members just finished a great weekend at Cross Roads Camp and Retreat Center. (more on that elsewhere in TIPS). The wonderful staff and administrators there are looking for help for their summer camp program. If you will be 18 by June 24th you are eligible to be a counselor, 17 year olds can work in the dining hall. It's a fun and spirit filled place! In fact several of our youth would love to attend as campers! If you are at all interested let me know. I have more info and I can make introductions.

MEMORIALS

Since February 15, 2016, there weren't any gifts given to the General Memorial Fund.

There have been no Memorial purchases this month.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 106. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. Please see Pat Winters or Judy Suther for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders and Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful loan repayments.

It is the middle of March as I write this. The temperature is in the 50's and I've seen the first crocus; the daffodils and hyacinths are up, a sure sign of spring. It feels good for some but others feel depressed in this time of year for some reason. So seek someone to talk to or write your feelings out and remember feeling down is temporary. Keep an eye on teenagers; they are more vulnerable to down feelings.

Why worry when you can pray?

Your journal entry is: When you pray, how often do you ask "and now God what can I do for you?" Some of the answers I hear from God are....

Just a reminder, as you do more outdoor activities, wear your seatbelts, no cell phone while driving, wear your helmet when riding your bike, get new sneakers for running or walking, and get checked if off balance or dizzy when participating in outdoor activities. Lastly, know your physical limitations to avoid falls.

Try this natural weed killer. Mix one gallon of vinegar, two cups of Epsom salt and one-quarter cup of dish soap. Pour into a sprayer, and spray on weeds.

Can't see that tiny serial number on an appliance? Use your cell phone to take a picture of it. You can enlarge it and you'll be able to read it much easier.

Let's look at some claims that should cause alarms. Be suspicious of products that say they can cure many things as well as claims of being a miracle cure. Be Leary of quick fixes such as lose 30 lbs in 30 days. I exaggerated but you know what I mean. The phrase "all natural" doesn't mean that it is safe. Personal testimonies on T.V are not a substitute for scientific evidence.

From a meditation book: "Rudeness is a weak persons attempt at strength" J. Matthew Casey. Would you like to be spoken to the way you spoke to someone today? Take some time to observe your own behavior. May the words of my mouth be acceptable in your sight dear Lord.

"This is truly the Prophet. Others said, "this is the Messiah". John 7 40 - 41

Navajo Lutheran Mission • Campbell Soup Labels

The Campbell Soup Label program will be discontinued on July 31, 2016. Here at the Mission we receive labels from all over the country, and many more are mailed directly to the program headquarters earmarked for the Mission's benefit. Over the years, the piles of carefully clipped labels have added up to at least 8 new vehicles, tables, chairs, school supplies, and much, much more.

Labels received and recorded prior to July 31st can still count toward valuable resources for the Mission and School.

The Campbell Soup Label program has been a God-send to Navajo Lutheran Mission. The benefits to the Navajo people are more than can be numbered. Please accept our sincere gratitude for the many dedicated individuals and congregations who have participated. We look forward to the new pathway of relationship and support that we can develop in the future.

MAYOR'S FORUM ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE MAY 3 at 7 pm WAYNE HILLS HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Behind Picket Fences

"It only takes one time to destroy a life, one time to destroy a family"

Wayne Hills SADD Presentation

Parents, youth, grandparents, and all concerned about substance abuse in our community are invited and encouraged to attend the Mayor's Forum on Substance Abuse. This year the message will be coming from our Wayne Valley and Wayne Hills high school kids, including members of SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions).

We will hear first-hand how drugs affect our children's lives as they speak of friends and family members who have been caught up in this epidemic. From a video put together by the Wayne Hills SADD team, we will learn that substance abuse does not discriminate. Wealthy, middle-income, and low-income towns and cities all are susceptible to this crisis. The link that follows will take you to the Wayne Hill SADD submission to United for Prevention in Passaic County.

Heart 'n Hands Mission

We have two events this month, both offering opportunities to join us in service to those in need. April 10 is our next Day of Service, and we will sort and pack clothing for distribution, from 12 noon to 4 pm in Fellowship Hall. Please join us for a few hours of fun and fellowship.

On Saturday, April 16, we are holding a clothing collection at the Montville Reformed Church. The Montville community continues to be very supportive with weekly donations.

With your support, we now serve more than 1000 people each month. All are welcome to join us on Monday mornings from 9 am to 12 noon to sort clothing. You can follow the Mission and keep up with news and events on our Facebook page and on our website at www.heartnhandsmission.org. If you wish to join our mailing list, please send a request to info@heartnhandsmission.org. We'd be happy to hear from you.

A Mission Moment

On Tuesday, March 8, we made our first delivery of clothing and toiletries to Calvary Baptist Community Center in Paterson. The center provides day care and GRE preparation classes for clients entering the workforce. Many are on public assistance, and are very grateful for the support we can provide to them and their families. We received this note from Juanita Webster, the GRE course instructor.

"Dear Bob and Rich,

I hope this message finds you blessed. I want to thank you with all my heart for the wonderful and generous donations that you bestowed upon my students. They are wonderfully grateful and happy for your organization's kindness."

THANK YOU FROM EVA'S KITCHEN

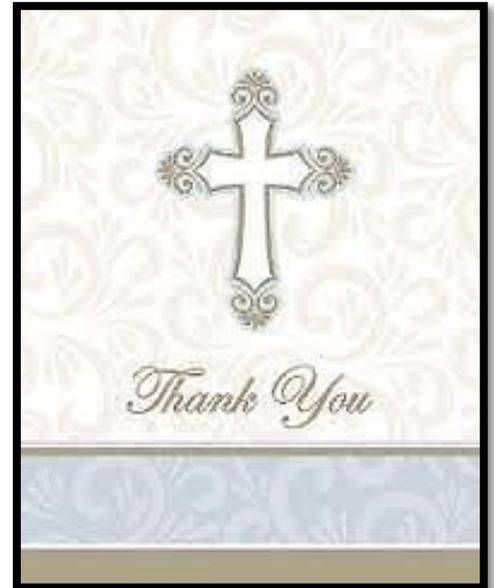

Thank you to everyone who so generously gave of their time to be part of Stew Sunday. Once again, we had a wonderful response. Monica Voinoir, coordinator, said that they were able to feed over 200 people and enough was left to bring to women and children living in a shelter. In these difficult economic times, this is vital ministry.

Some of you have asked how we became involved in Stew Sunday. The late Doris Porter began this ministry at Immaculate Heart of Mary. Several years ago, her daughter died of cancer and in caring for her daughter in her final days, Doris was unable to coordinate this effort. My husband (a member of IHM) asked if there was any way we could help. It seemed like a ministry that St. Timothy's members might embrace, and with little advance notice, we produced 15 batches of stew. Since then, we've participated each year. Between our two congregations, we make about 80 batches twice a year.

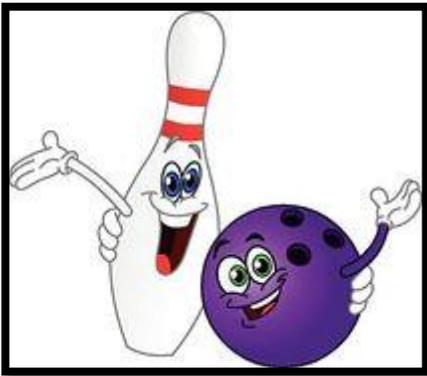

Our stew chefs are Robert and Debbie Andersen, Eileen Anderson, Christine Bede, Dot Bell, Lori Bleeker, Dawn Brassel, Colleen Borchert, Art and Sandy DeRose, Le Eckert, Nancy Farina, Cindy Gaffney, Eleanor Liljegrin, Mary Stevens, Carol Smith, Eileen Smith, Pat Spardel, Barbara Tammi, Nancy Tammi, Margot Weinert, Racquel White.

As always, we did have more stews than sign-ups. If your name isn't on this list, please let me know!

In Jesus Love,
Eileen Smith
