FROM THE PASTOR

Precious Lord, Take my hand
Lead me on, help me stand;
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn;
Thru the storm, thru the night,
Lead me on to the light,
Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

This hymn, written by Thomas Andrew Dorsey (not to be confused with Tommy Dorsey, the big band leader), was a favorite of Martin Luther King Jr. Dorsey toured with the great gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson, who made it into a staple hymn for black churches across the United States. Aretha Franklin sang it at Mahalia Jackson's funeral. Most recently, Beyonce sang the hymn at the Grammy's in 2015.

It may seem a melancholy song, but when you know the story behind it, the beauty is clear. Dorsey learned music in his father's church, where his mother played the organ. The church doubled as a school for black children in the early 20th century Jim Crow south. Later, in Chicago, Dorsey found success playing jazz in speakeasies like those owned by Al Capone. He made a name for himself leading jazz bands.

Then at the National Baptist Convention in Chicago in 1921, he experienced a revival of the faith in which he was raised. He started using his musical talent to produce gospel music for churches. His reputation grew as he toured the country's churches instead of speakeasies. In August of 1932, he received a telegram while performing in St. Louis. Both his wife and baby had passed away.

Dorsey was devastated and angry with God for "doing an injustice." In his anger, he didn't believe he would write music for the Lord any more. But, while sitting alone near a piano, he felt the peaceful and comforting presence of God. The song came to him "like drops of water falling from the crevice of the rock."

Many of the hymns that we sing in church on Sunday morning, were written and produced by musicians in moments of deep closeness with God. They have the gift of sharing those feelings with all of us through their music. Often during my personal prayer time, I will listen to recordings of gospel singers like Mahalia Jackson. I also pick up my hymnal and sing some of my old favorites. Singing our prayers is music to the Lord's ears.

When my way grows drear,
Precious Lord, linger near;
When my life is almost gone, hear my cry, hear my call,
Hold my hand lest I fall;
Take my hand precious Lord, lead me home.

Angel Circle

The Angels plan to meet on July 14th and 28th, as well as August 11th and 25th. We start at 10am.

Anyone interested in learning how to make a simple quilt is welcome. No sewing skills necessary. If you would like to learn to sew, join us.

The finished quilts are donated to Nursing Homes in Wayne, Totowa and Morristown during the winter.

As our group is dwindling in numbers, we are not able to make as many quilts as we'd like. We could use your help. This could be the summer you learn something new. Stop in and see.

Thanks, Barbara Kaplan

Laurie's regular office hours will change for the summer months, July and August, as follows:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday

MEMORIALS

Since May 15, 2021, no gifts have been given to the Memorial Fund. Gifts are appropriate and welcome at any time and may be given in memory or in honor of your loved ones.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 115. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. This work is on-going. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions as we assist families with the high price of college.

Notes from the Organ Loft

"What is a Prelude"?

For some worshippers, the prelude is the time before a service used to talk to one's neighbors in the pews around them, and the end of the music is the signal to end conversation.

According to Merriam Webster, a prelude is defined as:
1: an introductory performance, action, or event preceding and preparing for the principal or a more important matter
2a: a musical section or movement introducing the theme or chief subject (as of a fugue or suite) or serving as an introduction to an opera or oratorio
2b: an opening voluntary
2c: a separate concert piece usually for piano or orchestra and based entirely on a short motif

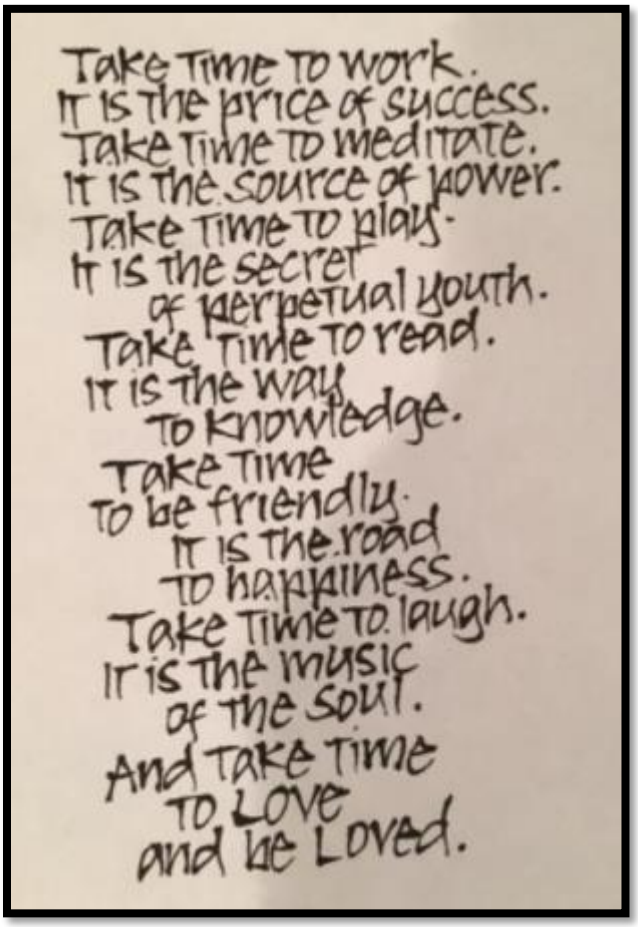
In terms of worship, definitions 1 and 2b most accurately describe the action of the music played before the "start" of the service. However, it is not the only function of the prelude. When choosing what to play as a prelude, I look at the theme/message of the day – the readings, psalm, and suggested hymns, and the lyrics to those hymns. I then match music selections to those themes – often, I choose an arrangement of a hymn we will do later in the service (this is an example of definition 2a above). Sometimes, I choose music to reflect the tone of the message, rather than the actual words. For example, during Lent I may play more somber music, and during a Festival Day, like Reformation, something more joyous and celebratory. The prelude is often played more quietly and contemplatively than the music that comes later in the service.

The true purpose of the prelude is to guide the congregation in a moment of reflection, to prepare their ears and hearts to the words that follow the music. I like to think of it as a musical sermon. If one takes the time to quiet the mind and really listen when the music begins, the message and the music in the service will resonate deeper in the mind, body, and spirit, because they will be more fully open to receive the Word. Next time you are in church, listen, and discover the message from the prelude.

Caroline Parody DM, St. Timothy

I'm worried about today's world. I think some have forgotten that they are only human. Human beings make mistakes, I'm reminded of an incident that happened a long time ago to a teenage neighbor of ours. His parents were called into school because it seems he set off the fire alarm. This boy was a junior in high school and was never in trouble and was a good student. It turns out he was just walking along the hall during change of class and "just flipped the switch" Was it put on his record and was he labeled forever? I don't know, I do know he was suspended at the time for a week from school. I've lost touch with this family so I have no idea how he is today.

Today it seems we can't have opinions, can't disagree, can't have debates, can't offend anyone and can't make mistakes. We've forgotten "let he who is without sin cast the first stone". Would you do the same thing today that you did when you were 16? I'm a firm believer that we do the best we can at the time with what we know and with the circumstances.



Be kind to yourself and to others. You are doing the best you can right now and our times are difficult. The virus is scary but we seem to have it under control. It seems like a good time to remember "let go and let God"

Have a wonderful summer. I'm closing with a part of an Irish prayer and remember God is always with you.

Sunday School classes will resume in the fall on Sunday September 12. Our Sunday School program is a very important foundation for our young children and youth in the Christian Faith. We are in need of two teachers, one for each of these classes: our 1st and 2nd grade class and our 3rd, 4th and 5th grade class. Wearesparkhouse has a great and easy to follow curriculum. As a teacher, you are also relearning the weekly Bible stories on a different level, seeing it through the children's eyes. If you can't teach every week, that's okay. We've had "Team Teachers" that shared the teaching weeks. Please don't be nervous to help out. The rewards are so amazing! It truly is the best part of my Sunday morning. Please contact Pastor Kimberly, Jeff Riotto, or me, Laura Dec if you are interested.

In His name,
Laura Dec

St. Timothy Congregation,

We would like to recognize 2 of our teachers [Charlie Purcel and Rich Wantula] who will not be returning to the classroom this Fall.

Charlie Purcel has been teaching (grades ranging from 1st thru 4th) for about 20 years while Rich Wantula has been teaching a total of 11 years (grades ranging from K, 3rd thru 5th and over the last few years 1st Communion). We would also like to thank their family members as well who have assisted and supported them (in the class room and at home) in a variety of ways over the years.

Although Charlie and Rich each brought a unique style of teaching, they both shared a common passion in not only Bible instruction, but in helping our children build a trusting and loving relationship with God. Their love of God is evident in their commitment to our program, students, our Church and in their daily lives. We thank them for the time, effort, and dedication they have given.

Although we will certainly miss Charlie and Rich in the classroom, this presents a good opportunity for those of you who have maybe thought about using your gifts in educating our children in Christian instruction. Teaching is not only a fulfilling/worthwhile task, it also an honor and privilege to serve God and help our young people. If interested, please see Pastor, Jeff Riotto, or Laura Dec. Help/support will be provided to you as required.

Sincerely,
Jeff Riotto

On Monday mornings at 9 AM some of our members meet to do some light work / building & property maintenance items around the church. Our group has traditionally been called "The Monday Morning Crew". We usually meet on Mondays from 9 AM till around 12 noon / 1 PM.

Pre Covid, we had several members coming every Monday which was helpful for us to accomplish the work we were doing around the church, but recently the number of attendees has dropped off due to members not returning after Covid as well as individuals that retired from the group.

We would like to remind those who previously attended, that the group is meeting weekly again and invite those folks back to join the group.

I addition, we are asking that anyone who could join our group to come on Monday morning and be part of this Fellowship and help us perform this important work that we provide for the church. Although regular attendance would be great, come on the Mondays that you are able.

If you need more information, please contact Robert Andersen at 973 831 0326 or anderob1@aol.com.

Heart 'n Hands Mission

We are grateful to our gathering sites that have been picking up donations on a regular basis. A few of our sites are not yet accepting clothing donations but we hope that with our vaccination progress in New Jersey that will change very soon. In the meantime, we are delivering donations to Paterson, Passaic, Hoboken and WIN. As our sites open up and as we continue to accept donations and see our valuable sorting team members returning "to work," we will need more willing supporters to deliver donations. Please speak with Bob Davidson or any Mission Board Member to learn how you can help with our deliveries.

Our Blessing Bag Program began in 2013. Since then, we have distributed 4,154 Blessing Bags to those in need! Last December, during the pandemic, we delivered pre-made bags in order to keep our supporters and volunteers safe from shopping and handling so many items. This year, we are returning to our roots and kicking off the campaign on July 1st ! You will find information about our 2021 Blessing Bag Program in our July Newsletter. Blessing Bag flyers are also available at the Donation Station on the street level of the church. We will not hold an Assembly Day this year, so we have adjusted our start date to allow us to assemble the Blessing Bags throughout the late summer and early fall as items are donated. As always, we thank you for your support of this program.

As our world opens up, please remember the homeless when you are traveling. We continue to accept and distribute unused hotel toiletries each month.

If you are not receiving our Newsletter, please email a request to info@heartnhandsmission.org and we will add you to our mailing list.

Thank you for your continued support of Heart 'n Hands Mission!

Would you like to be part of a prayer chain? If you are interested, please contact me at the number listed below.

Here's how it works: When someone calls me with a request you will be contacted to pray for that person, you will then pass the request on to one other person who will do the same. These requests will not be published.

To ask for prayer, call me and I will start the prayer chain. Requests can be as simple as "please pray for my neighbor who has to move into a nursing home?" or it can be "please pray for my daughter Ann". Feel free to give as many or as little details as you feel comfortable. Your request will be on the list for 4 weeks unless you call to continue.

Those calling with requests will be asked if it is confidential or if it can be shared. If you get my answering machine, you can simply say something like 'this is for prayers' and leave a phone number and I will call you when I get home.

Please call for any additional information,
Barbara Westerberg ~ 973-696-1471

Wayne Interfaith Network

Monetary donations are still the best way to donate at this time. They are greatly appreciated and may be made "in memory of" or "in honor of". Mail to Wayne Interfaith Network, PO Box 3341, Wayne, NJ 07474-3341.

Thank you for your generosity.

Bosnia IST Anniversary Celebration

While the skies were cloudy the spirit was bright as former (and future) travel and home team members gathered from all over New Jersey, (and one from South Dakota), to celebrate the ministry's 20th anniversary. It was a wonderful celebration of God's love and the work we've completed and the work we are excited to continue. In addition to a musical performance by Larry Olson of Dakota Road celebrants we treated to personal stories from past travelers and a dramatic performance of Three Billy Goats Gruff by the "not ready for prime-time St Timothy players". Stay tuned for Oscar nominations 😉. It truly was a joy to celebrate in person and enjoy some Christian fellowship.

A generous free will offering was collected to benefit two of our special needs camps that we do every year in BiH. Financial support for such programs is lacking in the country with most funding coming from the parents alone. They will truly appreciate the help. If you'd still like to contribute, contact me, donations will be going through the Synod to our account there and disbursed by our in-country coordinators Vjeko and Azra Saje. They sent their love in this letter:

Dear BOSNIA IST FRIENDS,

We are so proud to hear about the concert, and appreciate your commitment.

It is hard not to have you here for 2 years in a row, but the change and love you brought to our children, and to all of us is still fresh.

We want to believe that Corona crisis will fade away, and that we will continue with our Friendship camps, and peace building in the coming years.

You have warm greetings from many principals of the schools, mothers and kids from Joy of Life, Emsuda and her team from Srcem do Mira, and lots of love from Vjeko and Azra

Vaccination rates are still very low in BiH but we are hopeful they will increase and we'll be able to go ahead with plans to visit next summer. In the meantime, please join us in prayers of healing hope and peace for all.

Mir vama, (Go in peace)
