Good Advice and Good Examples

I'm sure by now you've heard that I'm retiring this summer; in fact, you're probably sick and tired of hearing about it. I promise neither to gloat nor to rub salt in whatever wounds there are, but here are some things to be said about my upcoming transition. First, although I've given reasons for retiring in the email or letter you received last week, I really didn't spell out my plans or how these plans came about. When Debbie and I started to think seriously about retirement a couple of years ago, we consulted with Mark Kleindienst, our (and maybe your) Thrivent Financial agent. Mark has managed most of our investments since we arrived in Wayne 24 years ago, and he has done a splendid job. Much to our delight, he told us that we could afford to retire when I turn 65. When our cheering and high-fiving ceased, he posed a very serious question: "what do you plan to do in retirement?" The obvious answer was: "not work," but we realized almost immediately that we hadn't given much thought to how we'd occupy our time when we were no longer employed.

I've seen many people through retirement over the years, and it surprises me that Mark's question hadn't occurred to us earlier. People who don't consider how they'll occupy their time in retirement often find retirement dull and dreary. Couples who haven't prepared themselves emotionally for retirement frequently discover the true meaning of the adage, "familiarity breeds contempt." Long-term marriages suffer because of poor planning, and sometimes they even fail.

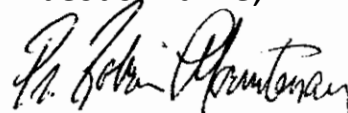

Mark gave us a lot to think about, and think we did. When I mentioned my retirement in a Facebook post yesterday, and a friend from college asked, "What happens next?" I found myself typing furiously as I organized my future aspirations for the first time. "We bought a place outside of York (PA). We have lots of yard work and some painting to do. We're going to see a lot more of the kids and their families. We're going to walk and ride our bikes as much as we can – it's a great neighborhood for both, and there's a fabulous rail trail nearby. We'll explore PA Dutch country and volunteer at community events and maybe at a local tourist railroad or museum. We're going to look for a church home. I'm planning to build a new train layout, write some model railroading articles, and get involved in railroad historical societies. We're going to enjoy having days off together and getting weekends back [with the exception of time spent in worship, of course!]. In a year or two I may offer my services as a supply preacher, a visitation pastor, or even an interim pastor at a vacant church.” It occurred to me later that I’d like to play the ukulele and maybe even the guitar a lot more than I have recently. Of course, Debbie has aspirations of her own, and we’ll undoubtedly find other things to do that haven’t yet dawned on us.

Again, thanks to Mark Kleindienst we’ve been making plans. But Mark, while he deserves much of the credit, doesn’t deserve it all. Many of you retirees at St. Timothy have inspired us as well. From the time my tenure began, I’ve been mightily impressed by our retired members. For many years the Property Committee consisted almost entirely of retirees, and the Monday Morning crew performed services that most congregations pay professionals handsomely to do. St. Timothy’s gardeners have likewise been mostly seniors and have worked tirelessly in the blazing summer sun and bone-chilling autumn breezes. Retirees have held memberships on council and numerous church committees, have prepared and served church dinners, have functioned as our IT department (you know who you are!), and have gathered to sew quilts and study scripture. Many of our Heart ‘n Hands volunteers are seniors, and retirees have represented St. Timothy on the board of the Wayne Interfaith Network. Moreover, many of our retirees have interests and activities in addition to their church work, such as: traveling; caring for grandchildren; taking on new physical challenges (one of our members hiked the entire Appalachian Trail after retiring); volunteering at local hospitals, nursing homes, libraries, and social service agencies; taking advantage of educational opportunities; even starting new business ventures. In so many ways, they have taught me that (new) life begins at 65 or at whatever age we retire.

The Psalmist says of the righteous: “They are planted in the house of the Lord; they flourish in the courts of our God. In old age they still produce fruit; they are always green and full of sap...” (Ps. 92:13-14). We learn by example, and the example set by the people of St. Timothy has been truly outstanding. I thank my many mentors at St. Timothy; I rejoice that they – you! – have taught me by their energetic retirements and tireless service!

Since December 15, 2019, a gift was given to the General Memorial Fund in memory of:

John Liljegren

There were no Memorial purchases during this month.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 114. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions as we assist families with the high price of college.

Adult Book Group ~ February 20th

We've continue reading Days of Awe and Wonder by Marcus J. Borg.

We'll go on to chapter 11 this month. Join us the 3rd Thursday of each month at 10:30 in the morning. We would love to have you join us. We meet in the parlor and Art DeRose is our leader so you know it's a mixture of study and laughter.

Art, Sandy, Nancy, Mary, Le and Barbara

Bookworms ~ February 8th

We will be meeting February 8th at the usual Barnes & Noble coffee shop. Our book selection is The Prayer Box by Lisa Windgate. Come and join us for good camaraderie and interesting discussion. We'd love to have you.

February - Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens

March - Eight hundred Grapes by Laura Dave

April - The Gown by Jennifer Robinson

May - Eleanor Oliphant is Fine by Gail Honeyman

June - The Alice Network by Kate Quinn

Join us any time at the coffee shop in Barnes & Noble on Rt. 46. Happy reading.

Colleen, Nancy, Carolyn,
Le, Elsie and Barbara

Don't forget Knitting and Crocheting on Tuesday, February 18th at 1 o'clock. Beginners and experts welcome. We meet in the church parlor. Come for sharing in our work and helping each other when needed. It's a fun time.

Come join us. There are approximately 8 of us that attend weekly on Tuesdays from 11:30am to 12:30pm. Both men and women are welcome, some of us are church members and some are from the community. All are welcome.

We meet in Fellowship hall every week. You may have noticed the chair set up. The cost is $30 a month. We have a great yoga leader who teaches us in ways to help both body and mind.

Do you know of a parishioner, family member or friend who is undergoing medical procedures, needs comfort in times of stress, suffering bereavement, during an illness or recovery and would benefit from prayer or meditation from others? The prayer shawl ministry has lovingly hand knitted and crocheted prayer shawls that are created through a ritual of prayer asking God to answer whatever need the recipient may have, asking Him to bless them and surround them with His love. The softness of the shawl is a reminder of His love as they are surrounded with it. Share it with loved ones, or cuddle with others with it. Please let Pastor Mountenay know of anyone who might be in need of the embrace of a hug and prayers as they go throughout their day.

Have you noticed the cost of cards and stamps? I'm sure you have...

We now have a card rack in the narthex. Some of you may remember when we had one in the past. The card rack has an assortment of cards including sympathy, get well, birthday, etc. for you to use as needed. In return, if you receive cards from charities that you don't use, we would welcome them for the card rack.

Care Packages

It's that time of the year; WELCA is looking for names & addresses of any men or women away at college or the military to receive one of our special Valentine packages. They need not be members of St. Timothy. Please give names & addresses to Terri Loftus tkabloft@optonline.net by 2/2.

Also, we are looking for cookie bakers (each cookie individually wrapped please). If you can bake a batch let Terri Loftus tkabloft@optonline.net know. Cookies are due by 2/9.

Once again WELCA will be hosting the Super Bowl Challenge for WIN. The boxes for the challenge are located on the main level in the donation area.

Happy February!

A review of the Book, How to Reset A Mind-Set, The power of the bad, by John Tierney and Roy F. Baumeister attracted me. We hear so much bad news today, especially in media reporting. I'm just going to pull out pieces I found helpful...

We tend to remember the bad much longer than the good that happens to us. The bad stuff really hurts. Somehow good stuff such as praise is momentarily rewarding and criticisms are long lasting. We have learned that everyone gets a trophy or that A's and B's in school is mediocre work. However, sometimes criticisms are necessary to motivate learning. (A return to the past) a time to look for the positive lesson.

Can we do more giving credit when credit is due? Can we overlook what we see as flaws in others? Do we have to mention to our spouse or child that error they made? Do we assume the worst? "It takes four good things to overcome a bad thing."

Change the channel when media shows over and over the same awful event. Relive the good moments and share them with others. Look at the big picture: For most of us life is good and generosity abounds. We help others. And don't forget to share that joke, corny or not, so we can laugh.

February is a short month and even if it snows, snow can be fun and it will melt and we will be closer to spring!

Senior Moments

Starting the day after Christmas stores have been displaying Valentine cards, candy, and flowers all in anticipation of February 14 - Valentine's Day. There really is no excuse, it would appear, to forget your sweetheart on this special day. One of the best gifts we can give a loved one for Valentine's Day is healthy heart care. February is healthy heart month when we think of ways in which we can prevent heart disease and strive to live heart healthy lives. Some tips include...

Buy colorful fruits and vegetables - low in calories, high in vitamins, minerals and fiber. Make sure you have variety of colored fruits and vegetables as well as whole grain breads and cereals and beans.

Avoid buying high fat dairy or meat. Choose meat with the least amount of visible fats.

Cuts that say "loin" are leaner than other cuts.

Ground meat should have less than 20% fat.

Yogurt, milk, and cheese should be 2% reduced fat or less.

Avoid buying butter. Replace butter with a healthy spread like Smart Balance, Benechol, or Promise.

Replace sugary drinks like soda or fruit juice with herbal teas

Read labels - it's easy for things like sodium to sneak in, especially in prepared foods.

Try to be more physically active: aim to get at least 150 minutes of physical activity each week. There is an activity for everyone: brisk walking, dancing, bowling, bicycling, and gardening, just to name a few. For more information: Go4Life: <https://go4life.nia.nih.gov>.

Learn how to manage stress, relax and cope with problems to improve health. Visit the National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health: <https://nccih.nih.gov/health/stress>.

If you smoke: quit!

Get regular check-ups to monitor health conditions that affect the heart, including high blood pressure, high cholesterol, and diabetes, and make sure they're under control with medication.

Reduce your alcohol intake. Excess alcohol consumption can worsen health conditions that contribute to heart disease, like blood pressure, arrhythmias, and high cholesterol levels.

Watch your weight. Too many pounds can add up to increased heart disease risk. To help prevent heart disease, maintain a healthy body weight for your size.

And have a very Happy Valentine's Day!

For the Senior Ministry Team,
Eileen Smith

PRIME TIMERS • FEBRUARY 5 • 11 AM-1 PM

A member of the Wayne Police Force will be or presenter in February talking about the serious subject of scams, especially scams directed at seniors. Just a few months ago a woman I know (age 90) was taken advantage of by scammers and lost over $50,000. There are always new scams so we always need more information so that we might be alert.

See you at Prime Timers at 11 a.m. on February 5th. As always, bring lunch and we'll supply dessert and coffee.

The God's Global Barnyard numbers are in! A grand total of $488.36 was collected from all of the Sunday School classes, Catechism and the Congregation. The Catechism class had the most in donations and enjoyed a special treat of Munchkins' after class. Each class chose the animals to buy and donate. Their choices were: 4 Sets of 10 Chicks ($10), 1 Rooster ($15), 2 sets of Honeybees ($20), 4 Piglets ($30), 1 set Piglet & Manure ($50), 3 Goats ($50), 1 set Goat & a Flock of Chicks ($60). The remaining $13.36 will go to wherever it is needed most. A big "Thank You" to all for helping out with this great cause.

Our 4th, 5th, 6th & 7th, grade Sunday School students were happy to help out WELCA for the 3rd year in a row. WELCA sends goody boxes to our College and Military young adults for Valentine's Day. They signed cards that were put in each box to remind our young adults that St. Timothy's and our Sunday School thinks about them.

In His Name,
Laura Dec

Heart 'n Hands Mission

Thank you to St. Timothy for your generous Benevolence Gift, which we will use for direct support of the homeless in Paterson and Passaic.

Our 2019 Blessing Bag project was a great success. Donations from 20 individuals and 10 companies and groups helped make this possible. We delivered a total of 538 bags to these sites and services:

Catholic Charities – Supportive Services for Veteran Families,
Paterson Community Outreach Services, Inc.
Food Pantry and Clothing Ministry, Paterson
First Presbyterian Church Food Pantry, Passaic
Helping Hands Food Pantry, Passaic
Iglesia Vision Celestial Church, Newark
North Porch Women and Infants' Center, Paterson
St. Matthew Trinity Lutheran Church Lunchtime Ministry, Hoboken
St. Paul's Community Development Corp., Paterson

Though we did not have an official day of service on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, January 20th, several Mission supporters came on their day off to help us keep up with the steady stream of donations coming in. Thank you to those who came, and to our faithful Monday morning and evening sorting crews.

Our Winter 2020 newsletter will be out soon, filled with more mission news, and our new website is up and running at www.heartnhandsmission.org.

STEW SUNDAY • MARCH 8th

Will you consider making a batch of stew for the guests at Eva's Kitchen in Paterson? We always hear words of gratitude from the guests at Eva's Kitchen for the meal prepared for them.

Once again we are joining with the congregation of Immaculate Heart of Mary to provide this nourishing meal. The past few times we've participated in Stew Sunday we've just about been able to serve everyone. The number of guests continues to grow. We always hope for left-over stew as this is distributed to a women's shelter.

The stew should be put into toss-away containers and brought to the church either Saturday night or Sunday before 10:00 a.m. You may also bring it on Friday during office hours (9-12). On Sunday at 10:00 the stews from St. Timothy are loaded up for transport to Eva's Kitchen.

We will have a sign-up sheet posted in a week or so. As we need a count of stews, please sign up on the bulletin board across from the elevator or let Eileen Smith or Laura Dec know that you will be cooking.

Thank you! Laura and Eileen

STEW SUNDAY RECIPE

3 lbs. stew meat - cut in 1½ inch chunks
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1/3 cup salad oil
1 large onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
4 beef bouillon cubes (or envelopes)

1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon pepper
6 medium potatoes, cut in chunks
1 16 oz. bag carrots, cut in chunks
1 10 oz. package frozen peas

Dredge meat in flour. Sauté meat, a few pieces at a time in oil, until well browned on all sides. Remove pieces as they brown and continue cooking other pieces.

Reduce heat to medium. Add chopped onion and garlic to drippings and cook until onion is almost tender, but not brown. Stir in 3 cups water, bouillon, salt, Worcestershire, and pepper - stirring occasionally until it comes to a boil. Add meat and cover. Simmer 2½ hours.

Add potatoes and carrot chunks. Cover and simmer 20 minutes. Stir in frozen peas and simmer 5 minutes.

New Jersey Synod's Bosnia International Servant Trip

It's the time of year where the Leadership team for the NJ Synod's Bosnia International Servant Trip starts it's planning. From St. Tim's, Hannah Wantula, Christian Wantula, and Cliff Konnerth will be attending the trip this year! This is the trip's 20th anniversary and while it is going to be a shorter trip, we will be holding Friendship camps at five schools over a one week period, we are no less excited for the opportunity to return to the country and continue our peace-making work. In the coming months stay tuned for updates and ways you can be part of the home team. Right now we ask for prayers as we bring together the team and program, and plan for our departure in June!

Hvala Puno! (Thank you very much) Hannah, Christian, and Cliff
