The Book of Daniel

Someone in a recent conversation brought up “that movie about Daniel.” I immediately responded, “They made a movie about the Book of Daniel?” “No,” came the reply, “It’s about Elton John.” Too bad – the biblical book of the same name is fascinating and filled with special effects – though the episodic nature of the work might be hard to follow. If you learned Bible stories as a child, as did I, you’re probably familiar with one, maybe two, incidents related by this Old Testament book. You may not know that Daniel is also the source of a very familiar expression, “the handwriting on the wall,” that it contains the clearest reference to the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead in the OT, and introduces us to the angels Gabriel and Michael.

Daniel is portrayed as a Jewish exile in Babylon in the 6th century B.C. Christians consider it a prophetic book and we place it in the Old Testament between Ezekiel and Hosea. The Jewish canon places it among the writings, between Esther and Ezra. The book contains a bit of history and a bit of prophecy. It’s rather neatly divided in two, the first section telling stories of the Jewish struggle for survival in the Babylonian Empire, the second revealing dreams and visions of Daniel in the midst of his time in exile. The book’s genre is properly apocalyptic. As such, it joins Revelation in the New Testament as one of two books falling into that category in our sacred scripture (note that there are other ancient apocryphal books out there, but only these two made it into the biblical canon).

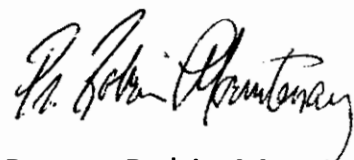

Despite Daniel’s seeming to date to the 6th century B.C., most scholars believe that the book came into its current form in the 2nd century B.C. The stories in chapters 1 through 6 may have originated and circulated in the 3rd or 4th centuries, but they were likely not combined with the visions of chapters 7-12 until the 2nd century rule of the Selucid (Greek) ruler, Antiochus IV Epiphanes and his desecration of the Jerusalem temple in 167 B.C. The traditional stories of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednigo in the fiery furnace and Daniel in the Lions' den recall an earlier time of Jewish persecution and encourage those facing later persecution to hold fast to the faith of their ancestors.

Just as God preserved the faithful through the trials of the Babylonian exile, so will God save his people from the attacks of the evil Antiochus. Despite the temporal power of earthly rulers, such as Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar, the God of Israel is far more powerful. Both of these ancient kings are brought to their knees because of their pride (it is the writing on the wall that spells the ignominious end of Belshazzar). Daniel has been gifted by God both to dream prophetic dreams and to interpret the dreams of others. As the patriarch Joseph rose to power in the Egyptian court thanks to this same gift, so Daniel becomes influential among the Babylonians, Medes, and Persians. The second half of the book invite the reader to share the allegorical dreams and visions of the seer, to know that oppression is temporary and God's reign is eternal.

If you'd like to learn more about this fascinating book and would be interested in hearing both Jewish and Christian perspectives on it, please join us for Prime Timers on Wednesday, June 5, at 11:00 a.m., when Rabbi Randy Mark and I will share our reflections upon Daniel.

Since April 15, 2019, gifts were given to the General Memorial Fund in memory of:
Dorothy ("Dot") Vasilenko

There were no Memorial purchases during this month.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 114. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions as we assist families with the high price of college.

Our Summer Worship Schedule begins on Sunday, June 16th!

Worship Services will be held at 6pm on Saturday Evenings and at 9:30 am on Sunday Mornings.

When I got up this morning I found myself grabbing my phone, and turning on the TV as I made my breakfast. Then I got the newspaper - media input - addiction. Finally I looked outside at the sunny day and the flowers starting to bloom and yes the deer too. I remembered seeing the bright blue moon last night.

When did I get so addicted to the phone, TV and newspapers? Do I ever just think? Are they my thoughts or someone else's? Game of thrones is over, am I going through withdrawal? Can I just take a walk without listening to something? When did I become this person?

Is it time for you to also think about how you spend your day? What will the next generation be like? Will they need constant stimulation? How can we teach them differently if we can't do it ourselves?

I've watched a 6:30 news broadcast and all it showed was disaster after disaster with one positive lovely happening at the end, with so many wonderful things going on, the reports could so easily be reversed. Most people are generous, kind, and helpful. Why is the media scaring people?

What can we do? This isn't God's plan for the world. How can we change what we believe we should do in our daily lives. We are each different with different skills and abilities. Let's start by getting off the media overload. Spend some time in quiet thought and with friends. What's God's plan for you?

Bosnia IST 2019

On June 22nd, twenty members of our church will depart for Bosnia and Herzegovina on the New Jersey Synods 20th and possibly last servant trip to this beautiful but struggling country (More on that later). The travel team is now busy preparing music, drama, games and service projects for the camps they'll conduct there.

They still need our help! Thank you to the Angel Circle who are once again working on this year's sewing project, key chain emojis (pictured here), and our Sunday school who has pledged to supply sports equipment for a camp. Financial assistance that pays for our bus, interpreters and lunch for teachers and campers is still needed. You can write a check to St Timothy with Bosnia in the memo line and place in the offering plate. Any and all contributions are greatly appreciated.

For our resident artists, tote bags to be decorated are here! There is a box of blank totes in the 4/5 classroom across from the secretary's office. Please take as many as you can complete and return no later than June 16th.

As I stated earlier this trip is especially noteworthy as it may be our last one and if not our last it will no doubt be changing. Jason Reed our trip coordinator, began this ministry 20 years ago after having worked with Mercy Corps during the Balkan wars. He was hired as the Synod's Youth Ministry Specialist where he has lead youth programs and incorporated the servant trip into that position. Unfortunately, declining revenues have led to the synod's decision to eliminate his position effective the end of this year. This is troubling for many reasons and something we should all be praying on apart from the servant trip. Please pray for Jason.

Finally, thank you for your prayers in support of the IST and I ask you continue praying for a safe and rewarding trip and peace in this land.

Hvala lijepo,
Cliff

Another great Sunday School year has finished at St. Timothy. On May 19th all of the Sunday School and their families enjoyed munchkins and juice in Fellowship Hall after a short class lesson. Several of our children received Attendance Pins for missing 4 Sundays or less. We had 7 of our students receive Attendance Pin Awards. 1st yr. pins went to Andrew Cleaver, Andrew Inciardi, Deanna Inciardi and Ethan Gaffney. A 4th yr. pin went to James Cleaver. And 5th yr. pins went to Andrew Koppenal and William Koppenal. A special Thank You goes out to the parents, grandparents or whomever else brought them to class. Our Sunday School Teachers were also recognized for their hard work each week. A $200 donation was made from our Sunday School. School supplies for a child $10, a solar powered lantern $30, stock a health clinic for a week $75, vaccinations for a child $30, clinic visits for a child and a textbook for an international leader. What a great way to "Pay It Forward" and help the less fortunate to now that GOD and St. Timothy cares about them too. And lastly, Sports equipment was signed with messages of Love and Hope for the New Jersey Synod's International Servant trip to Bosnia. The children of Bosnia truly appreciate the kindness that we help provide.

The Christian Education Committee is also sending out a big Thank You to our Sunday School Teachers and Office Staff. Our teachers are Laura Dec, Travis Brassel, Rose Rosen, Charlie Purcel, Taisha Purcel, Richard Wantula, Hannah Wantula and Christian Wantula. Catechism is taught by Jeff Riotto, Justin Oosterwyk and also Pastor. Thank you also to Lori VanDerStad and Craig Beyer for helping out Rich Wantula too! Our Office Staff is Terri Loftus, Tanya Kellstrom, Ilona Oosterwyk and Valerie McGrath. They make sure that attendance is up to date, offering is collected, photocopies are made and passed out. And, if our teachers need something they are always there to help out.

Looking forward to seeing you in Church on Saturday evening at 6pm or Sunday morning at 9:30 (June 16).

In His Name,
Laura Dec

Senior Moments

Prime Timers • Wednesday, June 5th • 11am – 1pm

A popular Sunday school song is: Daniel was thrown into the lion's den ROAR, lion's den ROAR, lion's den ROAR!

Some of our favorite Bible stories (and songs) come from the book of Daniel. A book filled with adventure, prophecy, and hope.

Rabbi Randall Mark returns to Prime Timers and with Pastor Mountenay will explore this book. Some of our best Prime Timers have been when our favorite Wayne clergy team up for a presentation. We hope you'll join in on June 5th, 11 a.m. Bring a brown bag lunch and we'll supply dessert and beverages.

Eileen Smith for the Senior Advisory Team

A letter from Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church in Wayne

Dear Members of St. Timothy,

I wanted to extend my deepest gratitude for your consistent support of Beef Stew Sunday. Your congregation is like the “little engine that could!” You never cease to amaze me with the amount of stew that Joe arrives with on Sunday morning. The recipients of the stew really enjoyed it! They were so grateful to have a warm hearty meal on such a cold morning. They were raving about how delicious it was and due to the overwhelming support of both of our parishes we were able to offer second helpings to the long line of recipients.

The most touching moment in my opinion, came towards the end of our serving. A family including a mother, father, two young children, and grandparents walked in the door. We were able to provide them with a large bowl of stew (in one of the containers that your congregation had donated) along with several loaves of bread and fruit. The mother was so very grateful. She had tears in her eyes. As an elementary school teacher, I know just how many children go hungry on weekends. The younger son, who was probably about four or five years old, looked so excited when he was able to walk out with the food we were able to give them. Without the support of Saint Timothy’s we would not have been able to provide so much to so many today! Please spread our gratitude to everyone who helped support this outreach ministry!

God Bless, Monica Voinov
