From the Pastor

A Month of Baptisms!

If you're reading this, you probably realize that Holy Baptism is the Christian rite of initiation. We become Christians – members of the Church – in this holy sacrament. There was a time when Baptism was almost obligatory: nearly every nominal Christian family had their children baptized, even if they had no plans to be active in the congregation in which the baptisms took place. Baptism was widely regarded as entry into polite “Christian” society; it was the “thing to do” for responsible parents.

Things have changed in recent years. Belonging to a church is no longer a prerequisite for respectability. Many people in today's society prefer not to have any religious affiliation, and their non-affiliation no longer prevents them from joining clubs, entering their children into exclusive schools, or finding employment. While some may decry these changes, in a sense, these developments are positive from a Christian standpoint. When Baptism was an obligatory civil rite of passage, the value of the sacrament was devalued and its true meaning misinterpreted. Baptism is not a once and done event. It does not signify entry into “normal life.” Baptism is not insurance against the fiery depths of hell.

St. Paul sees Baptism as participation in Christ's death and resurrection. He says in Romans 6: “... all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into his death ... we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so too we might walk in newness of life.”

Notice that Paul understands that baptism signifies dying to sin, death, and the devil, that is, sharing in Christ's death and receiving the benefits of it. However, Paul doesn't say that we instantly rise with Christ as we emerge from baptismal waters. Rather, we walk in newness of life. That means that, while sin, death, and the devil are held at bay, the struggle is not complete. Later in the chapter, Paul says, “do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.” In other words, life after baptism is the struggle of remembering that we have died to sin and death and looking beyond this life to the triumph of resurrection. Thus, life after baptism is one that is best lived in close community with the one whose death we share – it is life lived in the Church. That’s why, when infants are baptized, their parents and sponsors promise to “faithfully bring them to the services of God’s house, and teach them the Lord’s Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments, ... to provide for their instruction in the Christian faith,” etc., namely to raise them in the Church!

This October we have four baptisms scheduled! While some may complain that baptisms simply extend the length of worship, I say that Baptisms are a thrilling event in the life of our congregation. Many congregations these days go years with a single infant baptism; it’s quite possible that we’ll celebrate six before the end of the year. Baptisms signify growth of the congregation, and they reveal that we’re responding to Jesus’ great commission to “make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ...” (Matthew 28:19). Since most parents no longer feel obliged to have their children baptized these days, it’s important for us to be welcoming and supportive of those who are up to the challenge of raising children in the Church. Two of our October baptisms will take place at the 9:00 service and two at 10:30. Please join us to celebrate these joyous occasions, as four young people become “fellow members of the body of Christ, children of the same heavenly Father, and workers with us in the kingdom of God.”

Come join us. There are approximately 8 of us that attend weekly on Tuesdays from 11:30am to 12:30pm. Both men and women are welcome, some of us are church members and some are from the community. All are welcome.

Do you know of a parishioner, family member or friend who is undergoing medical procedures, needs comfort in times of stress, suffering bereavement, during an illness or recovery and would benefit from prayer or meditation from others? The prayer shawl ministry has lovingly hand knitted and crocheted prayer shawls that are created through a ritual of prayer asking God to answer whatever need the recipient may have, asking Him to bless them and surround them with His love. The softness of the shawl is a reminder of His love as they are surrounded with it. Share it with loved ones, or cuddle with others with it. Please let Pastor Mountenay know of anyone who might be in need of the embrace of a hug and prayers as they go throughout their day.

We have the most wonderful volunteers giving their time and service to the church.

Think of 5 people you know who do things in the church that you aren't able to do. Maybe they sing in the choir, fix maintenance problems, care for the altar, garden the grounds, serve Sunday coffee hour, serve on church council, keep track of finances, prepare our budget, make stew, bake cookies, mail the cookies, usher, teach Sunday school, etc... I could keep going on. I've missed so many.

Make their day by giving a smile or a thank you, comment to as many volunteers as you can this month. They do it without asking for anything. They give of their time. No pay!

Why do they do it? Maybe thanks to God for blessings or love of their fellow man. No one needs to know. Many do so much more than we even know about, maybe that's you... Thank you!

Let's make October appreciation month. Our church thrives because of you. God is with you always. Blessings to you all.

Senior Moments

It may seem hard to believe in these warm last days of summer that autumn begins in just a few days. In a blink of an eye winter will be upon us. For many, autumn is a favorite season. The colors are beautiful with shades of deep greens, browns, and reds. Stores and homes decorate with pumpkins and corn stalks. Yet the change of season from summer to autumn affects seniors in ways that we may not realize. For some seniors the aging process brings weight loss meaning very little meat on their bones. The simple act of going outside may lead to a cold or other illness. Seniors spend more time indoors in colder weather which might mean less activity and less socialization. There are things we can do as autumn begins to prepare for the transition from summer into autumn and then winter.

Help your immune system:

- Wash hands with hot, soapy water for at least 30 seconds.
- Get plenty of sleep!

Check your wardrobe making sure you have:

- good coat or jacket
- heavy sweaters
- working umbrella
- hats
- gloves
- scarves
- good winter shoes and boots

(This is a good time to discard clothing you haven't worn in a while for Heart 'n Hands!)

Check around your home:

- Is house heater working properly?
- Are heating filters changed?

Don't hibernate!

- Take a walk, but be cautious about slick surfaces from wet leaves or early morning frost.
- Read a good book.
- Learn a new hobby.
- Talk with friends - either visiting in person or on the phone.

Last but not least: come to church! If you need a ride let Pastor, another member, or a friend know. Attend church activities such as Prime Timers, Monday Morning Crew (even for a cup of coffee!) and Miriam Circle. Volunteer at Heart 'n Hands.

Happy Autumn!

In 2007, as a part of our fiftieth anniversary celebration, we established a new tradition at St. Timothy, the annual presentation of the Good Steward Award. The award is given to a member of the congregation who best exemplifies the principles of Christian stewardship: the gracious giving of time, talent and treasure; selfless devotion to serving Christ and his people; faithfulness to the Christian disciplines of prayer and worship; a strong commitment to the ministry of St. Timothy Church. Our first Good Steward Award recipient was Dolores Monsees. Joe Suarez was Good Steward in 2008. Debbie and Robert Andersen were 2009's Good Stewards. Sunday School at St. Timothy Started on September 8th with a special Sunday School Blessing.

“Today we celebrate the growth of our children and youth as they mature in years. Gracious God: As we gather today, we remember our role as learners and seekers of the faith. We give thanks for all those who support the teaching and learning that takes place through our congregation. Be with all- children, youth and adults – who will be participating this year in our church school and Christian formation groups. Bless our times of study so that we may grow in faith. Bless our times of fellowship so that we may truly live as brothers and sisters in Christ. Bless our times of prayer and worship so that we may be enriched in our spirits. Amen”.

Did you know that an animal could make a world of difference for a family in need? Animals provide food to eat, fertilizer to grow crops and offspring to sell on the market. With one gift, you could help a family escape the cycle of poverty and hunger for good. God’s Global Barnyard, part of the ELCA World Hunger Appeal, can help this need. All of our Sunday School and Catechism students will learn about this very important outreach mission on Sunday Oct. 6. A children’s sermon during the 9am service will explain how they can help others in need. They each will receive a very cute Barn Bank for this collection. The collection will end on Sunday Nov. 17. Let’s help them to give a gift to a family or families in need. A special Barnyard display, thanks to Valerie McGrath, will be in the Narthex with special envelopes for donations.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY - November 3rd

On Sunday, November 3rd, we will once again remember in prayer all the saints who departed this life during the past year. We will also remember, in the booklet, our loved ones who died in the past. If you would like a loved one remembered on All Saints, may we ask you to print the name of your loved one(s) and indicate the date of death and your relationship to the person. Please return the form to the church office by Monday, October 28th.

Your Name:
Name of Deceased	Date of Death	Your Relationship To the Deceased

A memorial table will be set up in the narthex for photos of those loved ones who departed this life *during the past year (since our last All Saints commemoration). We invite you to bring a photo of your loved one who died in this past year and place it on the table.

Jesus said .., “I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. John 11:25-26

Heart 'n Hands Mission

Heart 'n Hands Mission is in the midst of a very busy fall season. We are collecting black socks this month for all our gathering sites. Please place your donations in our Donation Station crate.

Our annual Blessing Bag Project is in full swing, and we are collecting donations of complete Blessing Bags and individual items through November 4.

A complete list of travel size toiletries and the other items is available on our website at <https://heartnhandsmission.org/images/files/Blessing-Bag-Flyer-2019.pdf>

On Tuesday evening, November 12, we will host our annual Blessing Bag Assembly Night in Fellowship Hall, from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm. This is a wonderful opportunity to support our mission to provide comfort to those in need in this year's holiday season. Youth of all ages and families are welcome. We ask that all children be accompanied by a responsible adult. We hope to fill 200 Blessing Bags that evening.

We are very pleased to present The Songbird Trio in concert on Sunday, November 24 at 3:00 pm in the St. Timothy sanctuary. The trio is comprised of St. Timothy's own Kathy Knittel on lead vocals, Joanie Bujacich on piano, and Joe Bilotti on guitar. They will be performing songs from Kathy's 2017 CD, A Songbird's Christmas, along with other releases including For Good (from the Broadway show Wicked), You've Got a Friend, and Landslide.

Kathy collaborated with her longtime friend and artist/arranger Joan Bujacich, and the album also includes melodious tones by acclaimed guitarist Joe Bilotti. The arrangements range from Kathy's vocals being accompanied by hypnotic acoustic guitar to full festive ensemble instrumentation with piano, strings, percussion and harmonies. It is a magical collaboration.

The tracks include the songs Mary Did You Know, Do You Hear What I Hear, Toyland, Joy To The World, White Christmas, Aspenglow, 'Til The Season Comes 'Round Again, Night Of Silence/Silent Night, It Came Upon A Midnight Clear, and That's What God Looks Like.

Please join us for this afternoon of wonderful music to support our work. Tickets are $15.00 per person, and are available from any mission board member, or by calling the church office and leaving a message in our Mailbox #6 with your name and the number of tickets you wish to purchase.

For more information about Blessing Bag items, and our activities and events, please visit us on Facebook and Like our page, go to our website at www.heartnhandsmission.org, or contact us by email at info@heartnhandsmission.org. Thank you all for your continuing support.

Lord, we ask that you watch over those in need, that they may find shelter when they seek it, food when they are hungry, clothing and comfort when they are cold, and Your grace and loving encouragement in their darkness.
