From the Pastor

Teaching

I love to teach! It surprises me that I'd never said – even thought – this before yesterday. To tell the truth, I didn't always enjoy teaching. It's not that I disliked preparing for class or transmitting my knowledge to others; I was fine with the concept. I think my problem with teaching was that I felt I wasn't that good at it.

Although the seminary spent a lot of time and effort equipping us to preach, they weren't nearly so thorough when preparing us to teach. Although they required us to take classes on the psychology and philosophy of teaching, learning the art of teaching was largely experiential. My earliest teaching experiences seemed akin to throwing a non-swimming child into the deep end of the pool, expecting the poor kid to learn swimming to survive. As first year seminarians, we were given "Field Education" positions, that is, we were each assigned to a local (within 30 miles or so) church for the year. There we learned from the parish pastor as we assisted him (they were all men in those days in that locale) in his various pastoral tasks. Again, we were carefully trained in liturgical leadership, but teaching was another matter. Our Field Ed. supervisors armed us only with the current catechism curriculum as they sent us into the arena to face the lions (8th and 9th graders!). Here we were facing kids that were only about 10 years younger than we were, and it was pretty scary!

Teaching adults was equally frightening, though for most of us that experience was reserved for our internship, two years down the road. Behavioral problems were fewer, but it was still challenging answering difficult questions and holding everyone's interest. With either audience, teaching was something to be learned on the job, not in the classroom.

Besides teaching catechism and first communion classes, teaching opportunities were fairly few in the early days after ordination. St. Paul's, Vandergrift, PA was a congregation largely made up of steel workers and their families. Although many of my parishioners were bright, they weren't academically oriented. Moreover, they didn't want this college boy from the suburbs to think he was smarter than they were. Launches of Bible studies and other religious classes for adults fell like lead balloons at St. Paul's. I finally found some success when I announced the Gourmet Bible Institute which promised dessert along with a study of Mark's gospel. The first few classes were well-attended, especially by Vandergrift standards, but interest began to wane by session #4. Debbie and I found ourselves with just one other couple in attendance. When no one else showed up, we started on the dessert and raided the very modest parsonage liquor cabinet.

When, after 9 years in Vandergrift, I was called as the pastor of St. Matthias Lutheran Church in Greensburg, PA, I hoped to find more teaching opportunities. I learned, however, that one of the true pillars of the congregation – we'll call her Vera (because that was her name!) – had a long-running Bible study. She was a delightful woman, a committed Christian, well-versed in both the Old and New Testaments, and not a little territorial! I found it best not to compete with her (she was a trusted ally in my controversial move to weekly communion at St. Matthias!). I really wasn't until I arrived at St. Timothy in 1996 that I had an opportunity to teach.

When I did offer classes during my early years in Wayne, I was astounded by the reception. I never expected large classes, but that's what I got. I've found over the years that I'm not always comfortable with published curricula, and I've found it helpful either to revise what's already been done or to create my own. This can make preparation a major undertaking, and I fear that I've not always had (or taken) as much time as I'd like to churn out classroom material.

Another issue is that Christian education is often perceived as something either for the very young or for their grandparents. I realize that younger folks with families have a hard time committing to weekly – or even monthly – study. Still, I really enjoy teaching, and I'd like the opportunity to offer classes to a larger segment of the congregation. And, without wanting to blow my own horn, you really should take the opportunity to study the Bible with me while you can. I find it fun, and I think that most of my students do as well.

Let's discuss ways of making Bible studies available to more members of our congregation. I know you're busy, and I'm busy too, but it's important work, and I'm sure we can find the time. Moreover, note that the classes I offer are not just for those over the age of 50. Every confirmed member (and even older kids who aren't yet confirmed) will benefit from the classes I offer.

In Jesus' name,

MEMORIALS

Since February 15, 2018, gifts were given to the Flanders Educational Fund in memory of:

Susan DeRose, niece of Art and Sandy DeRose, on her birthday and to the General Memorial Fund in honor of Art and Sandy's 60th wedding anniversary.

During this month, the Memorial Garden Fund paid for weeding and spraying in the Garden. There have been no other Memorial purchases during the month.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 112.

The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. Please see Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders and Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful loan repayments. We welcome additional contributions to these Funds, that we may continue to assist families with the high price of college.

Adult Evening Class ~ April 3rd

We continue reading The Bible Again for the First Time by Marcus J. Borg. We will read Chapter 5 for our April Meeting. This is a good time to join us.

Our discussions are lively and very thought provoking. Join us for 2 hours of discussion and laughter, You don't know what you are missing.

Carol, Art, Sandy, Dolores,
Le, Pat, Nancy, and Barbara

Bookworms ~ April 14th

We meet at Barnes & Noble on the 2nd Saturday each month. Our next meeting date is April 14th at 9:30 am. Here is our reading schedule:

April - Small Great Things by Jody Picoult

May - Mudbound by Hillary Jordan

Colleen, Pat, Nancy, Le, Dolores,
Carolyn, Elsie and Barbara

The WIN Food Pantry is serving 116 clients and their families. It particularly needs toilet tissue and all paper products. Personal care products are needed also. Food needs include: mayo, ketchup, mustard, peanut butter, jelly, canned fruit, pasta sauce, rice, dry beans, instant potatoes and gravy. They do not need canned corn, green beans, variety beans, soup or pasta.

Monetary donations are greatly appreciated and may be made "in memory of" or "in honor of". Mail to Wayne Interfaith Network, PO Box 3341, Wayne, NJ 07474-3341.

Thank you for your generosity.

PRIME TIMERS

April 4 • 11am

April Prime Timers will welcome Asia Shindelman who will share her story of survival, with memories of her life in Lithuania before — and after — the Occupation in her homeland, in a Polish concentration camp and Death March, as well as her life after the war. Please join in our April Prime Timers as we welcome Mrs. Shindelman, honor her life, give thanks for her survival, and remember in love and mercy the millions who died in in this atrocity, including over one million children. Our thanks to Peg Gerding in bringing this speaker to our congregation.

Meet us at 11 am and bring your brown bag lunch. We will provide coffee and dessert.

THANK YOU FROM EVA'S KITCHEN

From Monica Voinov, coordinator of Stew Sunday, thank you to everyone who so generously gave of their time to be part of this ministry. Our guest list rose to a new high. Both St. Timothy and Immaculate Heart of Mary responded in love with a high number of stews. At St. Timothy we had 30 stews, but not 30 sign-ups. If you are not in the list below, please let me know!

With thanks to our Stew Chefs: Christine Bedi, Lori Bleeker, Dawn Brassel, Laura Dec, Art and Sandy DeRose, Diane DeAngelis, Danielle and Gabi Dittmer, Deana Fagan, Danielle Fernandez, Eleanor Liljegrin, Liz Koch, Mary Laverack, Terri Loftus, Taisha Purcel, Pam Richardson, Ann Rocko, Carolyn Russo, Madison Schloesser, Eileen Smith, Pat Spardel, Mary Stevens, Barbara and Nancy Tammi, Nancy Truscutt, Carin Wantula, Margot Weinert.

In Jesus Love,
Eileen Smith

Happy April.

Do you look back on past decisions you've made and condemn yourself? Remember, we make the best decisions with the maturity and knowledge we have at the time. Looking back solves nothing. Oh... we may learn from past mistakes, but that's all. You are who you are now. You can choose who you want to be in the present and go forward.

Reflect on the things you are thankful for when you wake up each morning. Sometimes, especially with recent weather, just getting out of bed and making that cup of coffee is something to be thankful for.

Did you hear Marie play the bells with Caroline accompanying her? Her rendition of Amazing Grace kept me joyful for days. What a talent. She was amazing.

God has given us free will. But there is evil in this world and we must watch for it. And when troubles occur, remember God is always with you.

Are you truthful with yourself? Have you learned that you can get through a difficult time? Nothing stays the same, are you willing to do something a different way? "All life is an experiment. The more experiments you make the better." -Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Have you missed the small miracles in your life? I guess you weren't looking.

Happy Easter. Jesus lives. Like his early followers we will not let his message die.

North Jersey Interfaith Cares (NJIC)

Our ESL tutoring was highlighted this past month with a visit from NBC News, who profiled one of our families. Liza and her two sons (pictured here) shared their experience in Syria and the welcome they've received since arriving in the U.S. including the ESL program. I have had the privilege of working with Liza in the advanced group. She already speaks three languages and is on her way to mastering English now in hopes of teaching elementary school again. They are currently looking for an apartment in the area. If anyone might have a lead on this please let me know.

If you missed the news that evening here is the link to the segment. Check it out and perhaps spot the funny looking guy and the lovely St. Timothy lady.

Thanks again this month to Heart 'n Hands Mission for more school supplies. These are appreciated by both the kids and the adults. The families are working hard to improve their living conditions, as we go to press, Rimas (pictured here) and her family will be moving locally and I along with several of our older youth have volunteered to help. Thank you gentlemen I'll be in touch. 😊 To that same end if anyone knows of a clothes dryer donation please let me know.

Classes continue to meet Saturdays and Sundays from 3:45 to 6 pm and on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 8:30 pm at the Wayne YMCA, just bring your ID and ask for the ESL class. You don't have to attend every class but of course consistency helps.

As always, if you have any questions or thoughts on other ways of helping our neighbors please don't hesitate to ask.

In His Name, Cliff

Women of the ELCA Spring Happenings

Mother's Day is May 13th & also Blanket Sunday. You can benefit that special lady with a $5.00 donation to Church World Services. Envelopes can be found in the pews & on the table in the Narthex.

To honor your special Guy for Father's Day, June 17th, make a donation to Fisher House An organization which helps military families cope with catastrophic injuries, illness, or disease, providing housing close to loved ones during their hospitalization. Marked envelopes will be on the table in the Narthex.

Angels Circle

Can you tie a knot or pin fabric with a straight pin? If yes, we can use your help.

Come and see how easy it is to make a simple quilt.

The Angels will meet on April 11th and 25th at 10am.

Heart 'n Hands Mission

April is National Volunteer Month, a time dedicated to honoring all volunteers in our communities and for encouraging volunteerism through the numerous outreach ministries of St. Timothy. We invite you to consider what you can do to become involved, and to come to our April 7 Day of Service in recognition of National Volunteer Month. We will sort clothing from 10 am until 1 pm in Fellowship Hall, as we switch to preparing spring clothing for distribution.

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Heart 'n Hands Mission; we need many willing hands to prepare and deliver clothing donations and personal care items each month. Everyone involved uses the talents we have in giving whatever time we can to aid those in need. Can you help?

Each month we make four regularly scheduled deliveries on the first, second and fourth Mondays, and third Saturday. Deliveries take from 90 minutes to three hours round trip, leaving from and returning to the church, with a two-member delivery team. We deliver to sites in Paterson, Passaic, and Hoboken, and you are welcome to ride along and become familiar with our delivery procedures. This is a rewarding experience, as you will meet the women, men and families that we serve.

Our Monday Morning Sorting is listed in the bulletin every Sunday. We start setting up at 9:00 am, sort from 9:30 to 11:30, then move sorted clothes to the storage area and clean up. We also load the van for deliveries and unload it when the delivery teams return. You can come for one hour or three.

As we wrote last month, Divine Cleaners on Route 23 and Packanack Lake Cleaners on Lake Drive collect clothing donations year-round. We pick up once or twice a month. If you are a customer, or live nearby, can you pick up their donations and deliver them to the Orange Room when the church is open?

In addition to the delivery sites, three other organizations pick up clothing at the church. With them, we currently reach over 2,000 people each month, and each is impacted by the difference that one person can make. YOU can be that person. Can YOU give an hour or two a month to make that difference?

Please speak to any board member if you want to be a Mission volunteer. Join us in delivering comfort and hope to those in need.

Lord, we ask that you watch over those in need, that they may find shelter when they seek it, food when they are hungry, clothing and comfort when they are cold, and Your grace and loving encouragement in their darkness.

Bosnia IST 2018

Preparations for this summer's International Servant Trip to Bosnia and Herzegovina (BIH) continue. The trip dates are June 16-27. The team is now at a lean but healthy number of 16 individuals. I am personally excited to be part of Camp New Hope (CNH) for the first time this year. CNH is a retreat experience we began 5 years ago where we bring small groups together from the different schools we have visited over the years. Using similar activities from our friendship camps we learn about one another through song, drama and service. For many it is their first experience spending time with students of different ethnicity within their own country. We hope and pray the benefits of this icebreaking continue long after we leave. Four Amerikanskis lead this camp while the remainder of the team continue traditional camps at different, mainly segregated, schools.

The Angel Circle has begun working on this year's sewing project, Pocket Hearts! I ask all for their gifts of prayers, time, talents and financial donations as we prepare. Please check out the new and improved website www.servanttrips.org and contact me if you have any questions on this ministry. Thank you for your support.
