Holy Week and Easter

Holy Week, 2019, will be my 38th since ordination. It's been my practice in all three congregations I've served to observe this holiest of weeks with daily worship (except Saturday). When I was younger, this worship took the form of daily Eucharists – meaning daily sermons Sunday through Sunday. Thanks to the generosity and ingenuity of St. Timothy's Worship Committee, we've modified our Holy Week schedule over the years, and the result is quite pleasing.

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday, the Sunday of the Passion. This year, members of our confirmation class will join me in reading the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to St. Luke. As we read Luke's account of the Last Supper, Jesus' betrayal, his arrest, trial, and crucifixion, we receive a solemn preview of the week to come. What begins with Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem ends with rejection, humiliation, violence, and death.

Monday follows with Stations of the Cross, a moving service of prayer, readings, and song, that traces the footsteps of our Savior from trial to crucifixion. Originating as a sacred pilgrimage for those who couldn't afford a trip to Jerusalem, the Way of the Cross continues to humble and inspire the faithful.

Tuesday evening brings a very special Eucharistic service – “Table Communion.” We gather at tables in the Fellowship Hall in an intimate way that recalls Christ's gathering for the Passover Seder on the night of his betrayal.

We return to the sanctuary on Wednesday evening for Evening Prayer. This ancient service of song and prayer comes to us from the monastic tradition, where the faithful gathered to pray “the hours.” The simple beauty of vespers, sung with Marie Beyer’s flute accompaniment offers quiet midweek contemplation in anticipation of the momentous days to come.

Maundy Thursday’s service begins with the sermon, followed by individual absolution. We gathered on Ash Wednesday to confess our sins and acknowledge our fallen humanity. Absolution has been withheld throughout Lent, but it is granted once again on the night in which Jesus was betrayed. Remembering his last meal with the disciples, we gather for the Sacrament of Holy Communion. When all have communed, the altar is stripped and the chancel is laid bare.

Austerity is the mood on Good Friday; the altar and pulpit are devoid of any decoration, and the liturgy is spare. I lead the congregation in the Bidding Prayer, ancient petitions that are sung and spoken. John’s account of Jesus’ passion is read, interspersed with the beautiful hymns of the passion, and the extinguishing of seven candles, symbolizing Christ’s last words and the ebbing of his life. In the darkness a bell tolls 33 times – one for each year of Jesus earthly existence – and the book of life is slammed shut.

While the Lord ministers to the souls in Hades, we take Saturday off. In my younger days, I participated or hosted Easter Vigils – the first liturgy of the Easter season – on Holy Saturday. These days we wait until morning to celebrate the resurrection, which we do with festival services at 8:30 and 11:00 am. Please join us throughout the week to participate in the story of our salvation!

In Jesus’ name,

John Liljegren

and to the Grace & Cliff Flanders Scholarship Loan Fund in memory of:

Susan DeRose, niece of Sandy & Art DeRose

Donald Hamm, husband of Alice Hamm

There were no Memorial purchases during this month.

One Memorial Garden paver was purchased this month, so our paver total is now 114. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions as we assist families with the high price of college.

It's easy to just go along with the group you are in. It's much harder to voice a different opinion. It's easy to bully someone to get the focus off yourself in fear that you are the one that might be bullied. It's easy to consider that someone with a different opinion is evil instead of just having a different opinion. It's so scary to see so much of this happening today.

This thinking has always been around. Many years ago I went with other counselors to a high school to do an education with teachers and other school personal and students on bullying. An eye opener. Students did bully each other but teachers bullied students, maybe not realizing it, as well. They might call a student a name in teasing and that's all that was needed to start students taunting that student. (Relief that it wasn't me and thank goodness the focus is off me).

It seems today that this behavior is out of school and into everyday life. And now we add evil. You are evil because you have a different opinion. No more researching subjects to get more information. No more understanding that others experiences are different from yours. No more discussion. No debates. No more listening to others! What are you doing to change this?

People listened to Jesus. Some followed him, some crucified him. How is your research going? Are you listening?

Happy Easter. He is risen!

Heart 'n Hands Mission

April is National Volunteer Month, a time to honor all volunteers in our communities and to encourage volunteer service through the numerous outreach ministries of St. Timothy. We are hosting a great opportunity on April 6, with a Day of Service in recognition of National Volunteer Month. Please join us in sorting and packing clothing from 10 am until 2 pm in Fellowship Hall, as we prepare for spring clothing distributions.

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Heart 'n Hands Mission; we need many willing hands to prepare and deliver clothing donations and personal care items each month. Everyone involved uses the talents we have in giving whatever time we can to aid those in need. Can you help?

Our Monday Morning Sorting is listed in the bulletin every Sunday. We start setting up at 9:00 am, sort from 9:30 to 11:30, then move sorted clothes to the storage area and clean up. We also load the van for deliveries and unload it when the delivery teams return. You can come for one hour or three.

We continue to serve more than 2,000 people each month, and each is impacted by the difference that one person can make. YOU can be that person. Can YOU give an hour or two a month to make that difference?

Please speak to any board member if you want to be a Mission volunteer. Join us in delivering comfort and hope to those in need.

Lord, we ask that you watch over those in need, that they may find shelter when they seek it, food when they are hungry, clothing and comfort when they are cold, and Your grace and loving encouragement in their darkness.

Wayne Interfaith Network

Currently WIN is serving 118 clients and their families. Approximately 22 families are served each week. The pantry particularly needs jelly, pasta sauce, chef boyardee products, canned chili, canned fruit, fruit juice and juice boxes.

Monetary donations are greatly appreciated and may be made "in memory of" or "in honor of". Mail to Wayne Interfaith Network, PO Box 3341, Wayne, NJ 07474-3341.

Mary, Mother of Our Lord*

A Special invitation to the Women of St. Timothy
Monday, April 8th, 7 p.m.

MARY'S WAY OF THE CROSS: April 8th at 7 p.m.

The women of St. Timothy are invited to enter an intimate journey of faith through a deep reflection that will portray the pain and suffering of Jesus on the cross through the sorrowful eyes of his mother.

This service, which will be led by mothers in our congregation, follows the mother of Jesus as she walks the road to Calvary, emphasizing her sense of surrender: "I knew it had to be, so I walked on silently."

Help St. Timothy practice good stewardship!

If anyone has a pick-up truck or vehicle large enough to transport our recyclables to the Wayne Recycle Center please contact Cliff Konnerth on his cell at (201) 757-4086.

He occasionally needs a fill in if he can't get to them for a week or two.

Thanks! ☺

Our St. Timothy's Catechism students helped out for Stew Sunday. The class met on Saturday March 9th in our Kitchen and made 2 stews. Ilona Oosterwyk, Terri Loftus and their teacher Jeff Riotto supervised while they made a nutritious meal for the people who visit Eva's Kitchen. Lessons of kindness, compassion and generosity were taught that day. A great big "Thank You" also goes out to the Sunday School families that donated stews. I heard that Eileen Smith's car was overflowing with stew!

First Communion will be celebrated and received by our 4th & 5th Grade students for the first time on Sunday April 7th during the 10:30am service. Our 4 students will receive a Bible with his/her name in it. Thank you Rich Wantula for your Communion Instruction.

Palm Sunday is right around the corner on April 14th. We will all meet in the Sanctuary at 9:30 for a combined morning service. A procession by our Sunday School children waving Palms in Glory to Jesus will start off the day's events. Our Catechism students will be reading the Passion and assisting in most of the service. A Palm Sunday Children's Sermon will be given by Pastor for the young ones. A "Pot-Luck" Congregational Brunch will follow in Fellowship Hall. An intergenerational game of "Religious Easter Bingo" will be played during the event and prizes will be given to the winners. I believe a great time will be had by all!

In His Name,
Laura Dec

Senior Moments

Prime Timers - Wednesday April 3 - 11 AM - 1 PM.

PROUD TO BE STIGMA-FREE

We have an interesting and relevant Prime Timers coming up in April with Robbin Guilino (Wayne Alliance for the Prevention of Substance Abuse) and retired Wayne police detective Charlie Ahearn. For those of you who have been with Prime Timers a while, Charlie is an old friend who has visited us on several occasions. They will explain the Sigma-Free initiative which is growing throughout New Jersey towns and will also talk about the impact that the legalization of recreational marijuana will have on our lives.

As an added treat, they are bringing lunch (sandwiches) and cookies! Beverages will be served. So just bring your curiosity about very important topics impacting our lives today.

A Note to our Senior Veterans

Many of you may have already filed your income taxes and may know about the veterans tax exemption in New Jersey. But if you are not aware, while it is too late if you have filed, you might already start the process for next year. It is, indeed, a process!

As a veteran you are eligible for a $3,000 exemption on your Income Tax return if you are a military veteran who was honorably discharged or released under honorable circumstances from active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States on or any time before the last day of the tax year. To claim this exemption you must prove your eligibility by sending your DD 214 or another approved document such as documentation from your branch of service. It must show the character of discharge and if using your DD 214 it must have the number 4 on the bottom right-hand corner. You only need to do this once. It will remain in effect going forward. Please visit <https://www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/military/vetexemption-documentation.shtml> for more information.

While this exemption has been in place about two years, Trenton is well behind in processing these requests. In my husband's case it took almost a half year for them to respond that there was a problem with his DD 214. A visit to our Passaic County Veterans Representative proved there was not a problem and he resubmitted the form. Four months later Joe received another letter as his DD 214 had a 2 rather than a 4. The process does take time. Until you have received word from Trenton that your form has been accepted you cannot claim the exemption.

Despite the obstacles, there is still time this year if you appeal to your State Senator. We went to Senator Kristen Corrado. In one day her associate submitted the DD 214 and we heard back that it was approved. Never hesitate to reach out to your State Senator or Representative.

Even as the daughter of a Marine and wife of a Marine I never fully appreciated their service until Bill Monsees spoke of young boys in his high school class who left school to serve in World War II only to complete their education on their return home. It is hard to even imagine that happening today. Through the advocacy of people like Kristen Corrado, New Jersey does have benefits and programs for our Veterans and they are well deserved, but not always widely publicized. All counties have a veterans representative. Following is a list of veteran contact information for some of the counties represented in our St. Timothy community.

Thank you from Eva's Kitchen

Dear Members of St. Timothy,

I wanted to extend my deepest gratitude for your consistent support of Beef Stew Sunday. Your congregation is like the "little engine that could!" You never cease to amaze me with the amount of stew that Joe arrives with on Sunday morning. The recipients of the stew really enjoyed it! They were so grateful to have a warm hearty meal on such a cold morning. They were raving about how delicious it was and due to the overwhelming support of both of our parishes we were able to offer second helpings to the long line of recipients.

The most touching moment in my opinion, came towards the end of our serving. A family including a mother, father, two young children, and grandparents walked in the door. We were able to provide them with a large bowl of stew (in one of the containers that your congregation had donated) along with several loaves of bread and fruit. The mother was so very grateful. She had tears in her eyes. As an elementary school teacher, I know just how many children go hungry on weekends. The younger son, who was probably about four or five years old, looked so excited when he was able to walk out with the food we were able to give them. Without the support of Saint Timothy's we would not have been able to provide so much to so many today!

Please spread our gratitude to everyone who helped support this outreach ministry!

God Bless, Monica Voinov

We had a wonderful response to Stew Sunday. Our Stew Chefs included our Catechism students who met on Saturday to make stews, Ilona Oosterwyk, Laura Dec, Eileen Smith, Lori Bleeker, Colleen Duffy, Lisa Koppenal, Nancy Farina, Carol Nielson, Liz Koch, Ann Rocko, Barbara Johanson, Lois Clapp, Madison Schloesser, Diana DeAngelis, Danielle Fernandez, Loftus Family, De Rose Family, Carolyn Russo, Brassel Family, Carol Smith, Fagan Family, Cindy Gaffney, Taylor Family, Pam Richardson, Tiffany Kellstrom, Tonya Kellstrom. EYEGLOSS COLLECTION

We will no longer be collecting prescription eyeglasses at St. Timothy. However, Heart 'n Hands will continue to collect over-the-counter reading glasses. There is still a need for prescription eyeglasses and there are a number of ways that you may donate:

- 1) There is a receptacle in front of the Wayne municipal building for eyeglasses. Many post offices throughout New Jersey have receptacles (such as the Sheffield location in Wayne).
- 2) You may donate prescription glasses to LensCrafters, Pearle, or Sears Optical store locations throughout New Jersey for distribution to poor communities through OneSight charity.
- 3) The Lions Club International has distribution centers in New Jersey. They pick up glasses at any Walmart that has a vision center such as: Cedar Knolls, Garfield, or Riverdale. You may also go to <http://www.njlerc.org/donations.html> for a listing of Lions Club donation centers throughout New Jersey.

Please remember that although we are no longer collecting prescription eyeglasses there is still a need for over-the-counter reading glasses that Heart 'n Hands is responding to through the ministries they serve. For more information you can follow Heart 'n Hands on Facebook:
