From the Pastor

The B-i-b-l-e

When I started attending Sunday School at the tender age of 3, I learned a song whose title lends itself well to this article. It went: “The B-i-b-l-e, yes that’s the book for me. I stand alone on the Word of God, the B-i-b-l-e.” Perhaps you learned it too. When I Googled this song to make sure I had the words right, I found that there are two other verses: “The B-l-o-o-d that Jesus shed for me ...” and “S-a-v-e-d by g-r-a-c-e ...” I’m not sure whether or not we sang those too. As good as they are, it’s the first verse that concerns me at the moment.

Daily Bible reading has been a part of my life for many years, though not all my life, or even throughout my ministry. Several years after ordination I realized that spiritual discipline was lacking from my life (and, to be honest, it still is) and I found in my library a copy of Concordia’s Daily Office, which I had purchased some years before in the seminary book store. I began saying (to myself) Evening Prayer before I went to bed each night (and after we had said bedtime prayers with the kids). After several years I had nearly worn out my copy of the Daily Office, and, by the grace of God, I was introduced to *The Moravian Daily Text by the late, great Luther Scholar, Eric Gritsch. This wonderful little book, which I’ve mentioned before, takes the reader through the Bible in two years and all 150 Psalms in one year, by assigning one OT, one NT, and one reading from the Psalms each day of the year (except Sundays, when the reader is directed to the lectionary readings).

The discipline of daily Bible readings has been a real blessing to me. It’s not just that I can say that I’ve read the Bible cover to cover at least 12 times (which I have), but it’s that by daily immersion the Bible has become an integral part of my life. I must admit that I don’t find every page of scripture equally compelling, nor do I find answers to every one of life’s questions in its pages. Some of the readings seem overly long and ponderous. Others tell stories that are horrific to 21st century sensibilities. Yet, God speaks through scripture, sometimes in spite of the minutia or the so-called texts of terror. Despite its antiquity, the Bible continues to reveal God’s Word and to describe the fragile relationship between Creator and creature.

The miracle of scripture is that it addresses us where we live. Though I'm not always as attentive to my daily readings as I should be (that is, there are days when I rush through one or more of them because of the needs of the day or the tedium of the text – think Leviticus!), I find that the Word continues to come through loud and clear. Despite my relative familiarity with most of the Bible, I'm always gaining new insights as I read it anew. Just as our situation in life changes, so does the message we receive when we attend to God's Word.

Christians, Jews, and Muslims are often called "the People of the Book." Scripture is something that all Christian denominations hold in common, and it also represents a common bond with our Jewish neighbors (the OT), and, to some extent, Muslims (while the Quran is their most sacred text, they also recognize the efficacy of both the OT and NT). The Bible is also the book of the people. Even as we read scripture silently in solitude, we are reading it with God's people of all times and in all places. Knowledge of the Bible also opens our hearts and minds to the proclamation of the Gospel in worship each weekend. The Bible interprets itself in a very real sense – when we hear Christian preaching, we bring to it our own familiarity with and understanding of scripture. The Holy Spirit unites our private reading with public proclamation to present God's Word to us. These two aspects of experiencing scripture are complementary and both are essential to our life of faith.

Luther said that the Bible is the cradle in which we received the Christ child. That is, our exposure to scripture is a seed planted within our hearts that thrives and grows as we experience God's presence both privately and corporately. Make the Bible your book too!

Christopher Monsees, grandson of Dolores and Bill Monsees

Robert E. Davidson, Sr., father of Robert Davidson

Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words “Memorial Garden” on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. Please see Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words “Organ Repair” on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders and Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful loan repayments. We welcome additional contributions to these Funds, that we may continue to assist families with the high price of college.

Declaration on the Way: Church, Ministry, and Eucharist

Since 1965 Roman Catholic and Lutheran leaders have been in ecumenical dialogue. This 500th anniversary is a good time to look at the path we have traveled together and give thanks for the many points of agreement we have reached and encourage us to continue to pray for unity as the dialogue continues. The dialogue is in three parts: Church, Ministry, and Eucharists. This month we will look at Ministry.

Roman Catholics and Lutherans agree:

- That all the baptized who believe in Christ share in the priesthood of Christ. The common priesthood of all the baptized and the special, ordained ministry enhance on another.
- That the ordained ministry is of divine origin, instituted by Jesus Christ, and that it is necessary for the being of the church.
- That entry into this God-given ministry is not by baptism, but by ordination. Ministers cannot ordain themselves but are called by God and designated in and through the church.
- That ordination takes place through prayer, invoking the Holy Spirit and with the laying on of hands by another ordained person. The ordained receives an anointing of the Holy Spirit, who equips that person for ordained ministry.
- That this ministry is subordinated to Christ, who in the Holy Spirit is acting in the preaching of the Word of God, in the administration of the sacraments, and in pastoral service.
- That the proclamation of the gospel is foremost among various tasks of the ordained ministry.
- That the ordained minister is to assemble and build up the community by proclaiming the word of God, celebrating the sacraments, and presiding over the liturgical, missional, and diaconal life of the community.
- That the authority of the ministry is not an individual possession of the minister but it is rather an authority to serve in the community and for the community.
- That the office of ministry stands over against the community - as well as within it - and is called to exercise authority over the community.

Next month: Eucharist

Our Journal entry for this month is: My life would be different if...
So many ways you can go with this. Maybe you need to do several entries. What was the first thing that came into your mind?

Vitamin D is important for your mental health. 600 to 800 IU are recommended daily for older adults. See if you can get 20 minutes of direct sunlight a day. Eat fortified vitamin D foods.

Have some fun every day. Do you do that? What's fun for you? Read a Dr. Seuss book. Too silly? How about Art's Uncle Tutty stories? Don't know about them? You need to go to Adult class on Sunday mornings. His stories start you off with a chuckle or a groan.

Don't eat at night. Your digestive system benefits from an eleven to twelve hour break from food at night. So, if breakfast is at 7 don't eat after 7 or 8.

Spices like cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and allspice can improve cholesterol levels and reduce blood pressure. How about putting some on your oatmeal.

To get grease or oil off your floor, sprinkle with flour to absorb, and wait a couple of minutes. Then wipe with a paper towel.

"Our doubts are traitors, And make us lose the good we oft might win by fearing to attempt." -William Shakespeare

Pastor's Bible Quiz:

Last Month's Question: "When the Risen Jesus appeared, behind closed doors, to the disciples, which disciple was missing?" John 20 Answer: Thomas

New Question: "According to Acts 1, who replaced Judas as one of the twelve disciples?"

Heart 'n Hands Mission

The cool temperatures and torrential rain didn't dampen the spirits of all those who came out to support our Positano Dine & Donate event on April 6. Heart 'n Hands Mission Board Members, members of St. Timothy and friends of the mission all enjoyed fine Italian food, cheerful service and the warm, cozy atmosphere inside the restaurant. Many thanks go to Positano owner Steve Catalano for hosting us again this year!

Our April 23 National Volunteer Week Day of Service was another smashing success! Twenty-six volunteers helped to sort and prepare all of the spring and summer clothing from our old storage trailer for distribution in the coming months. It was our version of "spring cleaning."

Be a part of the Double-D team. How wonderful it is to have so many volunteers to sort and box our donations, but it's all for naught without drivers to get things to our friends in need. Please consider giving of your "time and talents" as a driver or delivery assistant to deliver donations to one of our distribution sites. It only takes 2 or 3 hours to be a blessing to others! Please contact our Bob Davidson or Rich Wantula if you would like to assist with a delivery.

We are thankful for all of your donations to assist those in need. Our volunteers are in the church on Monday mornings starting at 9:00 am, and will gladly assist you when dropping things off.

The church office is usually open 9:00 am to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday, and will accept donations during those hours. Please call 973-694-8316 to confirm that the office is open before bringing your donations. To make arrangements for any other time, please call the church office and leave a message in the Mission Mailbox #6 and someone will get back to you. Please do not leave items outside the church when the church office is closed.

A Mission Moment

On my way to and from work in Paterson, I encounter individuals who are homeless and struggling for basic necessities. There was an older gentleman asking for change; his clothing was ripped, and wet from recent rain showers.

I slowed down my car and called him over. He approached my car hesitantly and I asked if he wanted a clean zippered sweatshirt. He had the biggest smile saying thank you because his was rather smelly. Along with the sweatshirt, I handed him a Heart 'n Hands Blessing Bag. He looked into the bag and said to let him think which one item he needed most. I said that he did not have to choose one item because the entire bag was for him. He hugged that bag tightly and said, "Thank you - have a blessed day."

I watched him sit on the curb looking into the bag as if it was a treasure. I had tears running down my face on the drive home, realizing that the gesture meant so much to him.

First Communion was received by five of our 5th Graders on April 2. Caroline Corbett, Jacob Dittmer, Joshua Dittmer, Bryan Lawson and Ava Serventi received the sacrament with their families during the 10:30 service. Each student also was presented with a personalized Bible, a gift from St. Timothy's.

A game of "Holy Week Wheel of Fortune" was enjoyed by all the table teams at our annual Palm Sunday Breakfast. Thank you to our Catechism students and Debbie Mountenay for making us all think about the events of Holy Week.

Sunday School is once again winding down for the year. Our last day is May 21. Our teachers will have a short lesson and then all (parents too) will enjoy a light breakfast/snack and beverages in Fellowship Hall around 9:45. The students who have missed 4 or less Sundays will receive awards for good attendance. We have always called it Cross & Crown Sunday. Our Sunday School teachers will also be appreciated by the Christian Education Committee during the gathering. After the recognitions, we will be signing sports equipment with messages of Love and Hope for children in Bosnia. Flyers will be available in the Narthex to explain where, when and what to purchase to help out with the New Jersey's Synod's International Servant Trip. If you have any questions you can contact Cliff Konnerth.

Laura Dec

THANK YOU FROM EVA'S KITCHEN

From Monica Voinov, coordinator of Stew Sunday, thank you to everyone who so generously gave of their time to be part of this ministry. Once again, we had a wonderful response. Over 225 guests were served. This is up from our last Stew Sunday in October. The stew was also shared with women and children who are housed in a shelter for abused women. These local efforts of cooperation between our two congregations are a small but significant way to celebrate our unity with the Catholic church this 500th anniversary of the Reformation.

Our stew chefs include: Dawn Brassel, Christine Bedi, Sandy DeRose, Diana DeAngelis, Nancy Farina, Cindy Gaffney, Lisa Koppenal, Eleanor Liljegren, Terri Loftus, Carol Neilson, Pat Spardel, Dolores Monsees, Taisha Purcel, Pam Richardson, Ann Rocko, Carolyn Russo, Jacki Serventi, Carol Smith, Eileen Smith, Mary Stevens, Barbara Tammi, and Nancy Tammi.
