From the Pastor

The Tyranny of Self Righteousness

In Greek mythology, Procrustes was a son of Poseidon who offered lodging for travelers making their way to Athens. The bed in which guests slept fit no one precisely. Depending on the height of the lodger, Procrustes either stretched him out or amputated his extremities until the unfortunate pilgrim fit the bed exactly.

Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary defines "procrustean bed" as "a scheme or pattern into which someone or something is arbitrarily forced." It seems to me that the faith of the church is frequently forced into the procrustean bed of political thought or gut feelings in our current cultural milieu. Neither those on the right nor those on the left of the political spectrum are immune to this behavior. We adjust our religious standards to accommodate our partisan leanings, rather than allowing our faith to inform our political thought.

Our feelings of rectitude – our insistence that we are right – triumphs over all other possible positions. Because we are convinced that nothing can change our views, dialogue becomes impossible. Even worse, we demonize anyone whose position differs from our own: "I am good and they are evil." This sort of polarization is nothing new, even among the religious. We know the history of sectarian warfare – the crusades, the violent conflict surrounding the Reformation, jihad in the 20th and 21st centuries. What we experience in our culture today is more of a cold war than physical violence, but battle lines are drawn and the heat is rising.

At the root of this phenomenon is what the Greeks called hubris – pride – and what the Church calls sin. Rather than allowing God to be God, we become judge and jury. When we label ourselves good and the opposition evil, we lose sight of who we really are before God. Don't get me wrong, the actions may be wrong, either by our own judgement or by the judgement of God. But to describe another as evil while denying the possibility that my side and I may also be in collusion with evil is itself evil.

As Christians we acknowledge that it is not our inherent goodness that saves us, but rather the goodness, that is, the righteousness, of God. In Romans 3, St. Paul paraphrases several OT passages, "There is no one who is righteous, not even one ... All have turned aside, together they have become worthless; there is no one who shows kindness; not even one ... Their feet are swift to shed blood; ruin and misery are in their paths, and the way of peace they have not known..." Several verses later he continues, "But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, ... the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ..."

Whether prophets of the Old Testament or saints of the New, none were self-righteous, that is, none presented their own goodness as proof of the validity of their message. God was their righteousness, and they recognized the righteousness of God only in the face of their own shortcomings.

There is little hope for concord in our society unless all recognize that evil is all around us, not only on the "other side." Reasoning with the opposition – engaging in productive dialogue – is impossible when we insist that the opponent is inherently evil. Only when we acknowledge our own feet of clay and see that we and our opponents are together children of a fallen humanity, will there be any hope of knowing peace in our time.

MEMORIALS

Since May 15, 2018, gifts were given to the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund in honor and celebration of:

Rita Laubscher's 90th Birthday

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 112. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. Please see Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. The work is on-going and should be completed very soon. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders and Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful loan repayments. We welcome additional contributions to these Loan Funds, that we may continue to assist families with the high price of college.

Rudyard Kipling once said, "Gardens are not made by singing 'Oh, how beautiful' and sitting in the shade."

Would you give an hour of your time once a week to keep our church property looking well cared for?

Please contact Alice Hamm, Le Eckert of Carol Cook (our phone numbers are in the church directory).

A life well lived. Charles Krauthammer announced that his doctors have told him that he has only weeks to live. If you don't know who he is, look him up. He says "It is important to play the game well, but it is also important how one leaves the arena". He is a wonderful example of overcoming adversity.

Many of you know how my mind goes from one subject to another, this has led me to mental illness. There has been so much talk about mental illness lately, yet, it still seems to have a stigma. Depression, bi-polar disorder, schizophrenia and obsessive-compulsive disorder, to name a few, are very real. These are diseases just like diabetes. And just like diabetes there is help for them. There seems to be a thinking, especially in teens, that they shouldn't have depression, for example, and now we see that some mid-life adults also don't go for help. Listen to your friends, pay attention to what they are saying, don't be afraid to get help for a friend or relative if you are worried about them. I've heard teens say, "they won't be my friend any more if I tell someone"... the answer to that is 'yes, that might happen but it may also save your life'.

Back to Charles... injured at 17 yet he became a doctor. For decades he wrote columns published in newspapers. He commented on TV and his prospective was highly regarded. His book Things that Matter is a book of his articles about many subjects. May people never knew he was a paraplegic with limited use of only one arm and wheelchair bound since his accident. What a wonderful example of a well lived life.

We all face our own adversity. He said better than I, I am paraphrasing... that Religion is about the soul and values in life and atheism seems to need something so it has become about how to have a healthy body. I hope I didn't mess that up. Remember God is always with you.

How Your Endowment Gift Helps

Dear All,

The St Timothy Endowment Committee is asking you, the congregation, for suggestions for the 2017 endowment benevolent allocation.

Background: St Timothy Lutheran Church's ministry extends beyond the walls of the sanctuary and into the local and world community. St Timothy established the Endowment Fund in 2013 through the generosity of Ms. Marie Forester, as St Timothy was named as beneficiary of her estate.

Purpose: To strengthen and extend God's mission, reaching out in response to human need, locally, nationally, and globally.

Allocation: The Committee is responsible for the annual allocation of endowment dividend funds (approx. $6,633.00) which is 50% of that year's total dividends. Of the 50%, 25% ($3,316.50) of the total dividends will be determined by the committee and the other 25% ($3,316.50) is to be determined by the congregation.

Requirements: Funds can only be given to legally qualified recipients; no funds can be used for St. Timothy's normal operating expenses. Requests can be made for special projects of the congregation, capital improvements for the congregation and other purposes.

For our donations to have the greatest impact please consider giving to the local chapters of national and global organizations.

Due Date: Sept. 16th. There is a suggestion box with a tear-off sheet in the back of the Narthex. You will be asked to list one local, one national and one global charity and also include your name. You may cast your ballot by placing it in the box in the Narthex or emailing it to st.tims395@yahoo.com.

This is an exciting time at St Timothy and the committee looks forward to hearing your suggestions.

In His Service,

The Endowment Committee: Pat Kaplan, Mary Stevens, Roy Fabian, Rich Wantula, Edward Cleaver, Ken DeAngelis, and Lori Bleeker

Bosnia IST 2018

I write this the day before we depart. The team and I thank all who have helped make this possible. We are excited to once again bring healing, hope and peace to this beautiful country. As I have reported in past TIPs, Camp New Hope, of which I am a part this year, is a direct effort to unite the different ethnicities in the country. I look forward to fun games, personal growth and introspection with the kids and teachers we will meet. The trip may be almost complete when you read this (we return on June 27th) But prayers and financial assistance are always appreciated. Not all camps are fully funded based on our "best case" scenario (basically- how many kids show up) You can still put a check in the offering plate made out to St Timothy with "Bosnia IST" on the memo line. I will be sure to post pictures and updates on the facebook page BosniaIST as often as I can and look forward to sharing the experience with you all when I return. Please remember to pause and pray with us at 12PM Jersey time when we will be praying at 6PM Bosnia time ☺

North Jersey Interfaith Cares (NJIC)

Classes may not be in session but it's been a busy month at NJIC with ongoing plans for a busy summer! ESL tutoring is continuing on an individual basis (Tutors are meeting with students on their own schedule) Plans are underway for renewing formal classes in the fall.

NJIC Coordinators were invited to break the fast during Ramadan at GERA Iftar fundraiser June 4th. I was happy to attend on behalf of St Timothy and enjoyed several dynamic speakers as well as some wonderful middle eastern table fare.

There are two upcoming "Dine and Donate" fundraisers for North Jersey Interfaith Cares (NJIC) upcoming:

- Thursday July 12 - Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza - BOTH LOCATIONS (see below)
NO FLYER NEEDED but must tell waitress that it's for NJIC fundraiser.

- Thursday August 16 - California Pizza Kitchen.
CPK 1400 Willowbrook Mall, Spc. 1415 Willowbrook, Wayne NJ
The required flyer is attached

Please save the date of August 26th when we will once again sponsor a picnic and accompanying backpack drive for our families. This years picnic will be right up the road at the Wayne YMCA. Volunteers will be needed to help run the festivities.

Look to the "Donation Station" in July for a list of school supplies we hope to collect for the kids. Finally, I will be stepping down as NJIC representative for St Timothy after the picnic date. St Timothy will remain a member congregation of the organization but I am sure Pastor would appreciate help with coordinator duties. If you may be interested in assuming this position I'd be happy to sit down with you and go through it. Please prayerfully consider.
