Beginning Tuesday, January 4 at 2pm, Pastor Kimberly will be leading a sermon meditation (aka discussion) followed by a sharing of communion. This is a good opportunity for those people unable to attend Sunday mornings, to gather with others and feast on the Word. It's also a good opportunity for people that do come on Sundays to delve a bit deeper into the word.

“For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.”

Romans 7: 12

This is the time of year, that many people try to come up with New Year’s resolutions. I don’t know about you, but I’ve never been all that successful with them. I can relate to Paul’s words to the Romans: I don’t do the good I want to do! To some extent, we can point to COVID and it’s fall out. Every time I start to make plans to do anything, they seem to get derailed by a new strain (I used to love the Greek alphabet!). This year instead of a list of goals, I’m just going to start paying more attention to the good in the world. I’m going to be intentional about seeing all the beauty and kindness of everyday things. Beyond that, I’m going to try and point these things out to others. There are already more than enough critics in the world.

Over the weekend, I squeezed in a grocery shopping trip. As I moved through the aisles looking for the things on my list, I saw some people rudely pushing past others. I also saw shoppers waiting patiently and helping one another. It was a mixed bag of kindness and rudeness. When I got in line to pay, I saw that the person at the head of the line was having an in-depth discussion with the cashier. She kept referring to something on her phone. Other employees also had gathered around – apparently to accomplish getting this woman checked out and on her way. The next customer in line turned to me and said, “this has been going on for a while.”

I looked around and didn’t see a line that looked any better, so resolved to just wait my turn. It really wasn’t too much longer before the next person in line had her turn. I heard her say to the cashier, “can I put my phone number in for the reward points?”

The cashier, replied, “I don’t know. Can you?” He then turned to the bagger and said, “Where’s an English teacher when you need one? Let’s page an English teacher.”

My eyes just about bugged out of my head. I couldn't believe that he would be that terribly rude to a customer that had been waiting patiently for so long just to purchase the food she needed. She, however, didn't show any anger at all. She paid for her purchases and made her way to the door with a wave and a "Happy Holidays!"

When it came to be my turn, I asked, "May I enter my phone number?" His eyes widened and he said, "Oh, you heard that?" I just nodded and he did whatever needed to be done for me to enter the number. He was perfectly polite to me and my kid throughout the check out process and then told us, "Happy Holidays!" as we left. That previous customer, who had refused to allow his rudeness to affect her, had provided a reset to his attitude.

I've been thinking for quite a while about when and how we each extend grace to others. I think since COVID began, we've all had our patience taxed to the max. I have received requests from many people that I extend them grace, but I haven't experienced nearly as many people extending grace. That is why the customer in the grocery store stood out to me so boldly. She didn't allow the store employee's rudeness to impact her behavior. To the contrary, her extension of grace to him, did impact his behavior to the degree that he was much kinder to me and the customer than came after me.

I want to be that kind of person. A person who doesn't allow others' rudeness to change my behavior. I want to be the kind of person, whose grace can give someone a better day. So, maybe I am setting a resolution after all.

Angel Circle

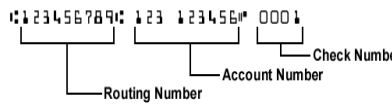

The Angels have donated quilts to the nuns in Morristown and the Navajo Indians. Thanks to Debbie Andersen for making this possible. Quilts were also donated to Vohra Wound physicians Center, formerly the Atrium, in Wayne.

Our next meeting dates are January 12th and 26th, weather permitting.

We wish everyone a Healthy New Year,
Barbara Kaplan

Since November 15, we have received a gift to the Flanders Scholarship Loan Fund in memory of:

Susan DeRose, niece of Art and Sandy DeRose

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 116. The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times! We hope to plant another tree in the Spring, in memory of George Terembes. This is a beautiful way to honor someone special.

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. This work is ongoing. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for the faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions to the loan funds as we assist families with the high price of college.

Happy New Year!

My prayer and wish for 2022 is that we no longer have to wear masks. Viruses have always been with us. Every year most of us get an injection for the seasonal flu and now we are up to a third shot against this virus. I want to get back to praying for peace and cures for cancer. I want to be praying for people we can help through organizations like WIN and Heart n' Hands. I want to pray for support for our wonderful new Pastor who prays for us to hear from her words what we need to hear. Does that make sense? We are a very welcoming, kind and generous congregation.

Do you make resolutions for the new year? I haven't lately. Every new virus scare has us back in our homes and masked if we go out. Are we afraid? Life is always full of challenges. There is only so much you can control. Look at the awful tornado that just went through Kentucky and Arkansas. What we can control is how we can help. This year my resolution is to help where I can. And to try to lift the spirits of people I meet. To smile (hope they can see me) and be generous with compliments and thanks. To be brave against this virus and go out and be with others. That's the kind of resolutions that make sense and sometimes are just as hard to keep as ones like watching my diet. I hope to be brave and remember God is always with me no matter what happens.

Remember the definition of being brave is to be afraid of doing something and doing it anyway.

Happy new year. Hope and Joy surround us especially during this Christmas season.

St. Timothy's Sunday School Christmas Program was a big hit this year! It was so nice to see the students act out the Nativity in person. As I looked out over our church family, the pews were filled with families and friends who came to enjoy the "Reason for The Season". And, all you could see was great big smiles and the feeling of joy that this season brings. The Catechism students helped each class get ready. Thank you to Pastor Kimberly, Caroline, our teachers, our Catechism class and students for making this most wonderful time of the year happen.

In His name,
Laura Dec

Dates to Remember:

Jan. 2 – No Sunday School

Jan. 9 – Sunday School classes resume

ALTAR FLOWERS

Consider honoring a birthday, anniversary, baptism, marriage, or the memory of a loved one by sponsoring flowers for worship. You are invited to celebrate and remember the special people and occasions in your own life, and in the life of the church. We purchase two bouquets each week and you may sponsor one or two bouquets for the sanctuary at $25 each. To reserve a Sunday, you may sign up on the poster in the hallway near the elevator. The 2022 flower chart is up. Please indicate the person whom you are honoring or remembering with your gift and, if you would like, your relationship to that person. Checks should be made payable to St. Timothy - Flowers. We only place two bouquets per Sunday on the altar, so we ask that if your date is already filled, you consider sponsoring the closest available date. You may take the flowers home after the 10:30 a.m. liturgy.

ETERNAL LIGHT

Another way to celebrate and remember the special people in your life is to sponsor the eternal light. You may make a donation to the Eternal Light Fund, either in memory of a loved one or in honor of friends, family, or a special occasion. The donation for an eternal light is $5.00 and we ask that we have one sponsor per Sunday. There is a poster in the hallway near the elevator where you can sign up to sponsor an eternal light. Please indicate the person whom you are honoring or remembering. Please make your check out to St. Timothy Lutheran Church and write, "Eternal Light" in the memo line. The 2022 list is available now.

Your gift will be acknowledged in the Sunday bulletin and your loved ones will be remembered in the Prayers of the Faithful on the Sunday that you have designated.

The SonRise Bistro has not yet re-opened. Sunday School parents and others are invited to join together in the Fellowship Hall while Sunday School is in session. Nancy Farina and Valerie McGrath have been setting up a really nice spread of coffee, tea, hot chocolate and snacks. So please come and hang out with each other safely in Fellowship Hall from 9:15 to 12 noon each Sunday morning. There are plenty of tables and chairs to social distance and gather together for some much-needed fellowship.

Dear St. Timothy,

Would you like to be part of a prayer chain? If you are interested, please contact me at the number listed below.

Here's how it works: When someone calls me with a request you will be contacted to pray for that person, you will then pass the request on to one other person who will do the same. These requests will not be published.

To ask for prayer, call me and I will start the prayer chain. Requests can be as simple as "please pray for my neighbor who has to move into a nursing home?" or it can be "please pray for my daughter Ann". Feel free to give as many or as little details as you feel comfortable. Your request will be on the list for 4 weeks unless you call to continue.

Those calling with requests will be asked if it is confidential or if it can be shared. If you get my answering machine, you can simply say something like 'this is for prayers' and leave a phone number and I will call you when I get home.

Please call for any additional information,

2021 in Review...

Dear Friends of Global Emergency Response and Assistance,

2021 was an extremely difficult year for families around the world, we saw lives uprooted and changed completely. Ever since the founding of Global Emergency Response and Assistance, we have thought to welcome, to protect, to promote, and to integrate refugees into our society. We believe we have a shared responsibility to uphold the human rights and dignity of refugees.

These past months, GERA shifted into high gear to assist and ensure a dignified resettlement process for Afghan refugees. Before even the first Afghan evacuee arrived at Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, Sikandar Khan, the Executive Director of GERA, knew the first step to take was advocacy. GERA contacted the New Jersey Governor's office, Senators, Members of Congress, and local elected officials to advocate for a smooth transition through the Office of New Americans. GERA's goal was to establish that the Afghan families would live in homes that would ensure their dignity and safety once resettled.

In the last five months we have been able to accomplish the following:

- GERA, in partnership with other local organizations, has delivered 40 trucks full of donations to Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst which includes men, women, and children's clothing, sanitary items, baby formula, baby food, and wipes.
- As part of our community engagement and community integration efforts, GERA provided entertainment to 10,000 evacuees at Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, by organizing "Kabab Friday," inviting every evacuee on the base to a cookout. The event was featured in the New York Times. GERA also organized a morale-boosting concert with Afghan legend Ustad Mangal, pop star Mozhdah Jamalzadah, and multi-platinum songwriter and singer Meghan Kabir.

- GERA has aided with settling independent departures and is working with resettlement agencies to process benefits for families. Currently, our organization is directly assisting 15 refugee families to ensure a dignified resettlement process.
- Along with local Afghan-American-led grassroots organizations and other non-profits, GERA has set up families in Airbnb's guaranteed apartments and provided furniture, groceries, and other basic necessities. Eight families under GERA's care have been placed in temporary accommodation through Airbnb.

GERA Winter Drive: Holiday Toy Drive and Essential Items

This Holiday season we have created an Amazon list consisting of toys and essential items for Afghan households. Items can also be mailed or donated to 119 Genessee Ave, Paterson New Jersey 07053.

Welcoming New Advisors and Team Members

GERA is thrilled to welcome two new Advisors. Gene Gitelson, management and leadership consultant, and Freshta Taeb the Refugee Interventionists Program at Cornerstone Family.

GERA is also excited to welcome Dr. Jabeen Ahmed is a Doctor of Pharmacy and Commissioner of the Passaic County Board of Social Services who will be serving as GERA's Medical Doctor and Sofia Nadar a Marketing expert and activist who will be serving as GERA's Program Manager. We look forward to their expertise and support as we carry on our mission.

The mission of Global Emergency Response and Assistance is to protect human rights, and restore the dignity, well-being, and safety of those physically, emotionally, and mentally affected by conflicts. We provide aid and assistance to refugees, new arrivals in host countries, and internally displaced persons. By providing such individuals with immediate relief, supporting their resettlement process, and advocating for their rights, we help support the values of human dignity and human rights.
