There are seven dimensions of health. Physical health is only one of them. Intellectual, emotional, social, vocational, and environmental are also important factors in our overall wellbeing. The seventh dimension is spiritual. Being spiritually healthy is a big part of our overall wellbeing.

All of these are connected to one another. If things are going badly at work, then that can affect our sleep patterns and our relationships with others. When we are in physical pain, we have a hard time thinking clearly and, often, feel anger or sadness. The opposite is also true, that if we are struggling in one area, but doing well in the others, we are likely to recover more quickly.

Being spiritually healthy strengthens us in our jobs, our relationships, and every area of our lives. Spiritual care can be especially helpful in managing physical pain. I remember one day doing rounds as a chaplain in the hospital. There was a woman lying in bed with silent tears running down her cheeks. She looked at me with such desperation as she whispered, "It just hurts so much."

I took her hand and started to pray. I directed her in meditating: breathing in the Holy Spirit; breathing out the pain. Her body started to relax and she fell asleep. I believe in the power of the Holy Spirit to provide comfort in body and mind. I know that God works through medical professionals to care for our bodies AND I know that God works through all of us to provide comfort to souls in any kind of struggle.

But, how do we care for our souls? We have some idea of how to care for our bodies: exercise and nutritious food. We know that reading and doing puzzles keeps our minds sharp. We know that conversation and time together is the key to healthy relationships. What about our spiritual health?

The two biggest things are prayer and reading scripture. Doing these alone in the privacy of your home is great, but doing them in community with a church is even better. Praying and reading the bible feed our souls. It is also important to exercise our faith – to practice trusting in God. We do this by worshiping.

My New Testament professor used to say to us that there are really only two ways the congregation worships God. The first is singing the hymns. The second is giving of tithes and offerings. Most of what happens in the worship service is feeding the souls of the congregation, which is a very important part of being church. But, when it comes to worshiping the Lord, we do that by singing God's praises and giving to God from what God has richly given us.

Giving of ourselves, our time, and our possessions is a big part of our spirituality. It is an appropriate measure of our spiritual health. Giving to the church means giving over control of a piece of ourselves to the realm of God. It is trusting in the body of Christ. Please prayerfully consider how you want to give.

The Stewardship committee is offering this prayer from the Evangelical Lutheran Worship book:

God, our gracious giver, your Son Jesus taught us that where our treasure is there our hearts will be also. Teach us to love people more than money, relationships more than things, and you above all, that the way we live will reflect what we truly value and believe. We ask this in the name of Jesus, who emptied himself in love for us, and now reigns with you and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen

Grateful thanks to the many St. Timothy folks who have contributed to the Matlacha Hookers' GoFundMe appeal for the people of Pine Island, Florida. The Hookers have used our donations to bring in and distribute everything from blue tarps for covering roofs to "Mommy bags" with breast pumps, baby food and cans of infant formula. There is such great need, and what they have done – what you have done – is wonderful!

Amid so much destruction, I personally was incredibly fortunate. There was a foot of storm surge water in my ground-level carport and shed, so the outside A/C unit, its ductwork, and my car are likely ruined, and the entire lanai (screened-in porch) came apart. But the trailer itself is raised just enough that water didn't enter. A neighbor did a walk-through of the inside: floors, walls, furniture are all okay. Glass on the floor from 2 broken windows, which another neighbor boarded up. Otherwise just fine, and it will be livable. I am very blessed! ---Anne Loffredo

Looking Ahead...

Christmas cards are now available for anyone ready to get a head-start on writing their holiday greetings! Look for them in Fellowship Hall in the card carousel on the table near the hallway to the Office. There's plenty to replenish, so feel free to help yourself to as many as you'd like.

Jesse Tree - Angel Gifts

We will once again be doing the Jesse Tree gifts (Angel Gifts) for children in need of clothing. There will be a basket of gift tags with the names, gender, and sizes of children affiliated with the Center for Family Resources, the home of the upper Passaic County Head Start program, some of whom meet at St. Timothy every other Wednesday.

There will also be a container to place the other half of the tag that must include your name and phone number.

For those streaming only but want to participate, feel free to contact Karen Sajban to arrange receipt of gift tags.

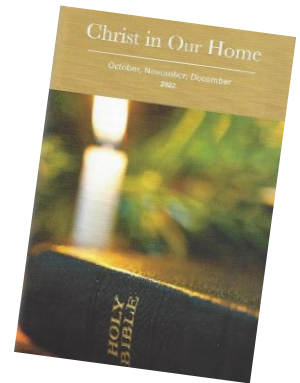

We will have the tags available in mid-November – keep a look out for definite date! Please take a name – or 2 – or 3 – and buy a gift of clothing for the child named. Bring it back to the church and place the wrapped gift with the gift tag attached under the Jesse tree (please avoid large bows and ribbons for packing purposes). Feel free to leave in the back right corner of chancel prior to the start of Advent where the Jesse Tree is placed. It will be delivered to children in time for Christmas! The deadline will be announced shortly as well. Thank you in advance for your generosity and continued support of the Jesse Tree Angel Gift program. Please contact Karen Sajban (973-229-4624) or ksajban@optonline.net with any questions.

Doing some holiday baking? Save those butter and margarine boxes!

Caroline is working on a long-term project and needs 100 of them!
She has placed baskets in the narthex and in the choir room for collection.

The quarterly Christ in Our Home devotional booklet is available on tables in the narthex and Fellowship Hall. Pick one up today and find daily inspiration, comfort and divine guidance.

Bookworms ~ November 5th

Our book selection for November is The Woman They Could Not Silence by Kate Moore, a dark, dramatic and ultimately uplifting tale of a forgotten woman whose inspirational journey sparked lasting change for women's rights and exposed injustices that still resonate today (from author's site).

For more information call Barbara Westerberg.

Happy reading, Colleen, Nancy, Carolyn, Valerie and Barbara

Angel Circle & Knitters/Crocheters

We will only be meeting once this month because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Join us on November 9th from 10am until Noon to sew, knit or crochet for a good cause and enjoy the camaraderie.

Any questions, call Barbara Kaplan

Adult Book Group ~ November 17th

Adult Forum ~ Every Sunday

Join us each Sunday morning at 9:15am in the Church Parlor. The Forum is a discussion and review of the religious, secular, and social "topics of the day" and how we relate to them as Christians in the modern world.

Enjoy "coffee/and," lively conversation, an energizing hour of fellowship (an a few chuckles) before the 10:30 worship service. All are welcome!

Sunday School ~ Every Sunday

Reformation Sunday was enjoyed by all! A combined service at 9:30am had a special time for the Sunday School younger students. Pastor ordered a special Pop-Up book all about the life of Martin Luther. Miss Laura took the younger children downstairs during Pastor's sermon and they had their own special "lesson". They also had Reformation activity sheets during the service to keep them busy. A Pot-Luck Brunch followed in Fellowship Hall. "Faith Rocks" and "The Lord is my Rock, Psalm 27:2" frames were made by all ages. A special Thank You to my friend, Rob MacKay, for donating the rocks (Faith Rocks) from Structural Stone in Fairfield.

Sunday School at St. Timothy is going really well. Attendance is great and the students are enjoying our new curriculums. Godly Play and The Story are engaging and fun! I'm going to tell you that I still like learning these stories through the eyes of the children. Yes, some of the stories are "aged down" for several of the grades but, they are the stories. Sometimes they are easier to understand and explain for us teachers too. The Story is also offered as an adult study in the SonRise Bistro during Sunday School hours (9:15 – 10:15).

Advent time is here again at St. Timothy! The Advent Tree of "Hope and Expectation" is called the Jesse Tree. The younger children will color ornaments that relate to the Bible stories of that week and hang them up on the Jesse Tree.

A weekly offering has always been part of our Sunday School classes. We started again last year and honestly, many of us have forgotten about this important act. When our children learn how to give at a young age, they will likely carry that practice into adulthood. Our offerings are an act of worship where we respond to the grace, love and mercy of God. Each of our classes will have a basket for offerings. If you still have envelopes from the past, feel free to use them. If you do not have envelopes, no worries, we are in the process of ordering more.

In His name,
Laura Dec

MEMORIALS

Memorial Funds continue to be instrumental in helping us move from Christian Education to Faith Formation. We have used gifts in memory of Jean Marc for the “Godly Play” Sunday School program, and gifts in memory of Ronald Rosen for “The Story,” a multi-generational bible study. The curriculum for each of these programs includes books and videos; wooden figures, boxes and other materials were also needed for “Godly Play.” In addition, these gifts have made possible the purchase of screens to show the videos, and additional tables and chairs for our littlest participants. The balance of the Ron Rosen Memorial Fund was used to purchase television sets with DVD players for four classrooms, so that students can watch “The Story.” We are most grateful to the families of Jean Marc and Ronald Rosen for these designations.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this summer, so our paver total stands at 116.

The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words “Memorial Garden” on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. This work is on-going. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words “Organ Repair” on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Loan Funds – and for faithful repayments to the loan funds. We welcome additional contributions to the loan funds as we assist families with the high price of college.

“Christmas at Sea”

90% of global trade is transported on the high seas by crew members on container ships whose job it is to ensure our supply chains. They can often be overworked, frustrated and lonely.

Seafarers International House ministers to the people in port throughout the year, counseling and providing every facet of pastoral care. Last year, chaplains delivered 2,162 Christmas satchels to these unseen essential workers!

St. Timothy WELCA has been a partner for many seasons. Please help us with giving of a donation from the list provided below.

Sweatshirt – M, L or XL
Socks – Thermal or Gym Crew
Large bar of chocolate or can of nuts or healthy snack bar
T-Shirt – M, L or XL
Knitted winter cap (no pastels or pom-poms)

A box will be in the Fellowship Hall level next to the elevator to capture our booty and make “Christmas at Sea” a success.

LAST DAY TO GIVE IS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13th

Heart 'n Hands Mission

Thank you to our St. Timothy family and to the Endowment Committee for your generous donation from the Endowment Fund. Your financial support will provide cold weather necessities to the homeless throughout our area.

As you know, we are now providing personal care kits year-round in lieu of our annual Blessing Bag Project. We appreciate all donations of travel size toiletries that allow us to continue this vital mission.

We are now accepting donations of winter clothing, coats, boots, hats, gloves, and scarves. We also welcome blankets and sleeping bags. In this season of Thanksgiving, let us remember our friends in need who may be struggling, hoping and praying for necessities and comfort.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Travel & Service Opportunity

Good news! The bishop has given the Bosnia IST a go-ahead to plan a 2023 trip. It is exciting to actually begin planning our long overdue 20th anniversary of this ministry. We will of course continue to monitor the COVID situation in BiH. My thanks to the endowment committee for designating a portion of international funds to the servant trip, we look forward to putting it to good use.

Please keep the leadership team in your prayers as we begin planning. Hardship has fallen on several of our members since our last trip, along with that the contentious political situation in BiH will make this preparation all the more challenging.

Now is the time to ask how God is calling on you to help. There will be ample opportunity to be on the home team through your gifts of time, talent and money or maybe even as a member of the travel team? The trip is open to all age 16 and above (15 with a parent or guardian). There are several travel team veterans here in St Timothy willing to answer any questions you may have. Let us know.

Would you like to be part of a prayer chain? If you are interested, please contact me at the number listed below.

Here's how it works: When someone calls me with a request you will be contacted to pray for that person, you will then pass the request on to one other person who will do the same. These requests will not be published.

To ask for prayer, call me and I will start the prayer chain. Requests can be as simple as "please pray for my neighbor who has to move into a nursing home?" or it can be "please pray for my daughter Ann". Feel free to give as many or as little details as you feel comfortable. Your request will be on the list for 4 weeks unless you call to continue.

Those calling with requests will be asked if it is confidential or if it can be shared. If you get my answering machine, you can simply say something like 'this is for prayers' and leave a phone number and I will call you when I get home.

Please call for any additional information, Barbara Westerberg ~ 973-696-1471
