*If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love,
I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 1 Corinthians 13:1*

February 14 is both Ash Wednesday and Valentine's Day. The last time these two converged was 2018. I remember it vividly, because it was the day that a 19-year-old male entered Marjorie Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, FL, killed seventeen people, and injured an additional seventeen. Seared in my brain is a photo of a parent outside the school holding another parent with an ash cross on her forehead (photo found here: https://s.abcnews.com/images/US/parkland-florida-school-shooting-03-ap-jc-180214\_3x2\_1600.jpg?w=1600). It is a poignant image of "you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Every year, when my own children come forward to receive the ashes, I find myself fighting back tears as I apply the cross to their head and say those words. Of course, I know that this life is a fleeting gift and the eternity promised by Jesus Christ is waiting for all of us, and yet, I also know that as a mother, I am biologically wired to ensure the survival of my offspring. That moment when we stand together in acknowledgement that even their lives will someday end, is so full of holy tension that a little bit slips out of my tear ducts.

No parent should have to outlive their child. This is something on which almost everyone agrees. Even those of us that fervently believe in an eternity with no more pain and no more sorrow (Rev. 21:4), agree that a good long life should come first. And yet, despite the general agreement that children should make it to adulthood, we as a society can't seem to find a way to protect them in their schools.

Growing up in inner-city schools, I was raised with the idea that only "bad guys" had guns – mainly gang members. For people in my high school, anyone suspected of owning a gun was shunned as an unsavory character. I also had uncles that hunted, but it was obvious that hunting guns were very different than the guns meant to kill people. In fact, my uncle Sonny and his sons often enjoyed hunting with cross bows. It was a sport for them that also ensured they had plenty of meat for their families. Never once did it occur to me that someone might show up at my high school and commit mass murder. It wasn't even on my radar.

A lot of this is due to a Supreme Court decision in 2008, District of Columbia vs. Heller, which removed many state and city rights to control the who, when, and how of gun ownership. Four years later, a young man would enter Sandy Hook Elementary school and kill 28 people – most of them children. Mass shootings have been steadily increasing every year since with the only break coming in 2020, when mass gatherings weren't really happening<sup>1</sup>. Efforts to pass local gun laws are severely hampered by the Heller decision. And efforts to pass Federal laws are severely hampered by well-funded lobbyists and information campaigns.

I am not writing this to try and convince anyone of any specific answer. In fact, I don't know enough about guns myself to suggest any solutions. On top of that, my overwhelming fear for my kids very well may cloud my perspective on what is best for the community as a whole. I believe, that the issue is much too complex for anyone to provide a simple answer. It will look very different to someone from rural America, suburbia, or the inner-city.

What I do know is that we absolutely will not see any improvement without real conversations between knowledgeable gun owners, victims of gun violence, sociologists, mental health practitioners, lawyers, and various other experts. Those conversations must be had with respect for differing experiences, perspectives, and actual facts.

I don't agree with Scalia's interpretation on the second amendment. Many lawyers, judges, and even his contemporary justices didn't and don't agree with his interpretation. But, even if he was spot-on with the original intent of the constitution, as Christians, we are never obligated to follow any human law before that of God Almighty. And what are the two greatest commandments? Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind, and might and your neighbor as yourself. If we enter into any conversation, if we advocate or lobby for any laws, without love, then our words are merely "a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal" and no one is willing to listen to that.

Pastor Kimberly is available via cell call or text in cases where she is unable to physically make it to church for regularly scheduled office hours. Otherwise, non-emergency matters will be handled during the next business day.
  2. The process for using our buildings for outside events begins with a Facility Use Application allowing Deb to first check the calendar. She will then forward to Council, if necessary. If these steps are not followed, you cannot assume that your date has been secured. Once the date and approval are secured, an Agreement for Use of Facilities will be put in place requiring signatures and payment (if applicable).

St. Timothy has received a grant to do youth and family outreach in 2024. It is a matching grant, which means funds we raise for youth and family will be doubled by the synod. This means that things like the Purple Hair Pastor fundraiser and donations to programs like Octoberfest and the Pancake Supper are matched.

We also received an initial seed grant to get new programs started that are geared toward the greater Wayne community. In February, we have the celebrated author and advocate, Jaime Bruesehoff, coming to share with us about raising a transgender child. In March, Melinda Burgard, a music therapist with decades of experience working with elderly people experiencing memory loss, will come for a luncheon discussion around caring for family members experiencing those challenges. Then in early May, Dr. Julie Faith Parker of Union Theological Seminary will be with us to present her work on children in the Bible and the importance of children within a faith community.

These programs are intended to be outreach to the community, so if you know anyone interested, please make sure they hear about it.

Adult Book Group ~ February 15th

Our Book Club meets as a group of friends on the third Thursday of the month in the Church Parlor. Our readings are chosen by mutual consent to be interesting and relevant to our faith-life's interest. We are currently reading the final chapters of "Speaking Christian" by Marcus Borg. This book, (one of many we have read by Borg) analyses the profound effect language interpretation can have upon words and scriptural passages to change the intent and perceptions of often misunderstood religious beliefs. We have read many authors and diverse books related to understanding scripture, biblical personalities and scriptural themes. The discussion is lighthearted, fun, interesting and always helpful to our own understanding of the foundations of our Christian heritage. Discussions are singular by chapter and can be joined at any point. All are welcome, please join us.

Meditation with Movement ~ Every Tuesday

Join us Tuesday afternoons at 1pm. Bring your own water bottle. The cost is $30 per month, cash only, but pay as you go. Enjoy the companionship and reap the wellness benefits! We are open to all... not just church members, so tell your friends!

Communion & ~ Every Tuesday

The essence of practicing faith in the Lutheran way is through Word and Sacrament. In addition to worship on Sunday mornings, you can also engage in the bible readings for the upcoming week and receive communion on Tuesdays at 2pm. Anyone is welcome to join us for a less formal gathering in the parlor.

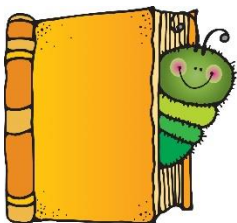

Pastor Kimberly also arranges for home visits to provide pastoral care and to administer Communion to those unable to receive the Sacrament either on Tuesdays or Sundays. Please call or text her or contact Deb in the Office if you would like to schedule a time for yourself or a loved one.

Bookworms ~ February 10th

The Golden Doves, Martha Hall Kelly
Two former female spies, bound together by their past, risk everything to hunt down an infamous Nazi doctor in the aftermath of World War II – an extraordinary novel inspired by true events from the New York Times bestselling author of Lilac Girls

Martha Hall Kelly has garnered acclaim for her stunning combination of empathy and research into the stories of women throughout history and for exploring the terrors of Ravensbrück. With The Golden Doves, she has crafted an unforgettable story about the fates of Nazi fugitives in the wake of World War II – and the unsung females spies who risked it all to bring them to justice. –from GoodReads

For Bookworms information, contact Barbara Westerberg at 973.696.1471 on how to join in the friendly discussion.

Happy reading!

Sunday School ~ Every Sunday, September to June

Lent is right around the corner! And we are getting ready here in our Sunday School classes. Our Adult Sunday School class will be studying "Seven Words: Listening to Christ from the Cross" by Susan G. Robb.

Fallon Goskowski leads this class each week at 9:15 in the SonRise Bistro. Bring your cup of coffee, or whatever you drink, and join the group. You do not need to commit to each week, but I know you will. Great discussions and true fellowship are what you will experience.

Our young Sunday School children are learning Bible stories through our Godly Play program. I wasn't sure if everyone understood what this program is all about. Parables, sacred stories and liturgical actions are shared through actions, words and teaching artifacts. The children sit in a circle and are captivated and brought to silence as the story unfolds right before their eyes. I have experienced this as an adult in the room as the "Door Person". Learning through their eyes is amazing! They also have time to explore other story materials or art supplies. A feast is enjoyed by all following a prayer.

Members wanted! Calling out to all who would like join our Christian Education Committee. We only have one requirement – wanting to help continue teaching the word of God to all ages. Our meetings are on the 3rd Tuesday at 7pm each month in the Parlor. If you have any ideas that you want to share, please come join us. You can ask any of the committee members: Pastor Kimberly, Jeff Riotto, Terri Loftus, Ilona Oosterwyk, Cindy Cleaver, Fallon Goskowski or Laura Dec for more info.

In His name,
Laura Dec

Would you like to be part of a prayer chain? If you are interested, please contact me at the number listed below.

Here's how it works: When someone calls me with a request you will be contacted to pray for that person, you will then pass the request on to one other person who will do the same. These requests will not be published.

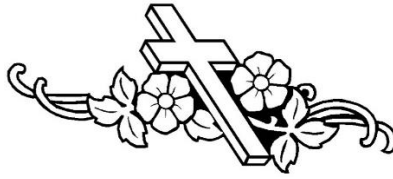

To ask for prayer, call me and I will start the prayer chain. Requests can be as simple as "please pray for my neighbor who has to move into a nursing home?" or it can be "please pray for my daughter Ann". Feel free to give as many or as little details as you feel comfortable. Your request will be on the list for 4 weeks unless you call to continue.

Those calling with requests will be asked if it is confidential or if it can be shared. If you get my answering machine, you can simply say something like 'this is for prayers' and leave a phone number and I will call you when I get home.

Please call for any additional information,

MEMORIALS

Since November 15, 2023, gifts have been given to Pastor's Discretionary Fund in memory of:

to the Organ Repair Fund in memory of:

Louise Hawkridge

and to the General Memorial Fund in memory of:

Ken and Betty Jones

We are pleased that there have been additional paybacks from St. Timothy members who received Schleer and Flanders educational loans. We encourage all recipients of these loans to set up payment schedules, so that we can continue to assist our young people with the high cost of college. Gifts to the Schleer and Flanders Loan Funds are always appreciated, as well!

There have been no recent Memorial purchases.

No Memorial Garden pavers were purchased this month, so our paver total stands at 116.

The price of a paver is $300.00. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Memorial Garden" on the memo line. Pavers may be engraved with the names of deceased loved ones, or left blank for future engraving. Paver application sheets are available in the narthex. See Pat Winters for further information or assistance. The Memorial Garden is self-supporting; gifts are welcome at all times!

We also welcome contributions to the fund for restoration and enhancement of our Church organ. This work is on-going. Checks may be made to St. Timothy Memorial Fund, with the words "Organ Repair" on the memo line.

We are grateful to all who have given to the St. Timothy Memorial Funds – the General Memorial Fund, Pastor's Discretionary Fund, the Music Fund, the George Laubscher Monday Morning Fund, the Memorial Garden Fund, the Eternal Light Candle Fund, and the Flanders/Schleer Scholarship Funds – and for those faithful repayments to the loan funds.

Heart 'n Hands Mission

We do not often enough pass along the many, many heartfelt expressions of gratitude we receive from the people we help. Their expressions range from a simple “Thank you” to “Bless you, I really need this today” and beyond. A pair of socks, new underwear, a sweatshirt or coat, or shoes lifts up their spirits more than you can imagine. Your support brings much joy and light into their lives.

Last year, your generosity made it possible for us to provide over 3,400 personal care kits to those in need. This was 1,000 more kits than we distributed the previous year. We appreciate all your contributions and donations of travel size toiletries that allow us to do this.

Again this year we are asking for donations of specific care items each month. You can find some of these items on our Amazon Wish List or in discount stores.

Our monthly requests are:

January – warm gloves

February – adult crew socks

March – travel or full-size shave cream

April – toothbrushes or toothpaste

May – travel or full-size deodorant

June – travel size sunscreen

July – travel or full-size shampoo

August – dental floss or flossers

September – travel size lotion

October – travel size body wash or boxed soap

November – protein bars

December – medicated powder

We are currently accepting donations of winter clothing, coats, boots, hats, gloves, and scarves. We also welcome donations of blankets and sleeping bags. If you receive deliveries of food at home, please donate the insulation liners – they provide much needed ground pads.

Lord, we ask that you watch over those in need, that they may find shelter when they seek it, food when they are hungry, clothing and comfort when they are cold, and Your grace and loving encouragement in their darkness.
